Mayor's dinner celebrates Acton Library Centennial

Halton Hills Public Library is celebrating the 100th anniversary of the Acton Library at the Mayor's Gala Dinner and Country Jamboree on Friday, Nov. 14. Venue for the event is the community hall of the new Acton arena and proceeds are in support of the Acton Library.

Theme is country and patrons are being urged to appear in their best country western dancing gear. The dress code runs from flannel and denim to sequins snake-skin boots, ten gallon hats and big hair. Entertainment will include a concert by Harry Bryan, local singer and songwriter, who is gaining recognition for his own brand of Canadian/folk music.

Silent auctions, a tradition at the mayor's dinner, will see autographed CDs by favourite country artists, books with a country theme, western style clothing/accessories as well as some surprise items up for bids. The winners will be announced before the evening concludes with dancing to Les Sallay of Sonic Entertainment.
