

HEADS UP! Several sections of panelling in an overhang at the front entrance of the Acton arena were torn off during last week's windstorm. While unfortunate, the damage caused more than a few smirks among those who want to save the old Prospect Park arena since an argument for demolition is that the roof is unsound and could collapse in high winds. The worst winds in 23 caused no damage to the old facility - the contractor will assess damage at the new arena this week. - Frances Niblock photo

ACTON SENIORS' RECREATION CENTRE

Our dance Saturday was great. Good music, not too loud, casual dress, coffee and punch available all evening and a nice lunch to finish off the evening. Neil Miller won the door prize. Pat and Paul Thompson won a spot dance. All who attended said they had a good time. Watch for our next dance at a later date.
Line Dancing is going well, also Tai Chi.
Our shopping trip was a success. Lots of Christmas presents bought. A nice touch was our visit to the Springridge Farm in Milton.
Our next trip is to Casino

Rama on Wednesday, Nov. 25! The cost is $7 and includes a great lunch (with bread pudding).
Don't forget our trip to Owen Sound to see the "Northern Lights" with lunch at Knox United Church, a Christmas show and tour of the lights of Owen Sound.
Our Bake Sale and Bazaar is Nov. 21 from 10 to 4. The donations are coming in and looking great. Come and buy your goodies and Christmas presents.
See you at the Centre. For rides phone 853-5951.
