Athletic Association championship.

§ Acton's Margaret Millman goes house shopping and plans for her daughter's wedding after picking up a cheque for $110,224.07, second prize in the January 16, '98 Super 7 Lotto draw. The ticket was purchased at the Village variety. It was the second lottery windfall for Millman who won $2,700 six years ago.

§ Town councillors instruct the treasurer to come back with a preliminary budget showing no more than a 2 per cent tax increase. Councillors feel forced to increase taxes so service levels don't slip. Since 1991 the annual tax increase for Town purposes has been 0.53 per cent.

§ Two Acton churches boycott the annual Unity Service because they are unhappy with the theology of the guest speaker, former United Church moderator, the Very Reverend Lois Wilson. Wilson delivered a message of unity, world-wide witness and service to neighbour.

§ The first issue of The New Tanner hits the streets of Acton and the surrounding area. The new Willow Street office is flooded with calls from people welcoming back their local paper.

FEBRUARY
 February

§ Amid much hoopla and fanfare and after a decade of planning, praying and perseverance by local politicians, the new $5.3 million Acton Arena and Community Centre opens with an official ribbon cutting ceremony at centre ice.

Remembers names

Dear Editor,
 I wanted to compliment you, the next time we met, on the fine article remembering George Beatty. I am sure all old Actonites recall George with fond memories. I know I sure do. The many hours we spent at the old rink firing pucks at George in net. He was a formidable goalie.

The purpose of this note is to identify the December 22/98 picture of Kay Alger's class of 48:

From memory, not bad for a 50+ Acton grad!

Ron Sinclair,
 Caledon

Story on Vitamin E
 Vitamin E is an antioxidant that is important in the prevention of cancer and caridovascular disease. It improves circulation, it is necessary for tissue repair, and is useful in treating premenstrual syndrome and fibocystis disease of the breast. It promotes normal blood clotting and healing, reduces scarring from some wounds, reduces blood pressure, aids in preventing cataracts and relaxes leg cramps. Vitamin E also promotes healthy skin and hair.
 As an antioxidant, Vitamin E prevents cell damage by inhibiting the formation of free radicals. It retards aging and may prevent age spots as well.
 Iron and Vitamin E should always be taken separately, since they hinder each other's absorption. In contrast the antioxidants Vitamin C and selenium enhance the action of Vitamin E.
 Externally it can be used for skin wounds.
 SWISS Vit. E 90 caps regular price $17.75. Sale price $9.99.
