Community rallies for Macfarlanes

 first priority is "getting out of the health care system" and back to living as normally as possible.

Brad was a pipe fitter with a natural gas firm in Brampton before his injury. He has been offered an office position with his employer as well as receiving employment offers from other acquaintances. The question is which one to pursue.

Anita was a visual merchandising trainer with a ladies' clothing store chain. She has taken a leave of absence in order to care for and transport Brad. That leave can't last indefinitely although she's extremely grateful for her employer's present compassion. Will she return to that job, seek another or try to work from home? So far they have not decided.

"We decided not to make any decisions for the first year," she says. "But it's hard. We want to get on with our lives and we can't because everything's up in the air."

What has touched them is the community's efforts to help and support them. After a chat with a neighbour involved in organizing a fundraising dance for them, the couple decided they should accept the community's offer. It will let area residents show their support for the family as well as giving the Macfarlanes a chance to thank everyone involved in that effort.

"I come from a very, very tight family," Anita says. "We're always there for each other. But that's family. That's what you expect. We've never experienced anything like this where the community is so involved in trying to help. It's like the whole community is a family for us. It's overwhelming."

Renee Watson heads Daughters of Knox

BY INEZ BRENNAN
 The Daughters of Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton had their first meeting of 1999 on January 4.

The new executive was installed by the minister, Rev. Peter van Harten. Renee Watson took over the president's chair from the retiring president, Eunice Gibson and presented suggestions for fund-raising. The St. George's Dinner and Silent Auction will be repeated this year on April 24. The other big annual project will be the bazaar in October; and the group will also continue to promote Regal products.

Sharon van Harten's group led a worship service and served lunch.

LEGION NEWS BRANCH No. 197

BY MIKE MANUEL
 These are the following three months or Branch Activities I would like to bring to your attention:

Jan. 16 - Ladies Auxiliary Appreciation Night; Jan. 23 - 50's/60's Dance; Jan. 31 - Super Bowl Party; Feb. 13 - Valentine's Party; Feb. 27 - Bus Trip to Rama; Mar. 27 - Easter Ham Roll; Mar. 28 - Br. 197 Anniversary - Honours and Awards.

This coming Saturday promises to be extra special when the men of our Branch Honour our hard work and industrious Ladies' Auxiliary. The 50's/60's Dance should be a good nostalgic evening.

The Branch is open to everyone and the dance starts at 8 p.m. There is no charge to get in, so come down early.

We've got an afternoon of euchre, darts and we promise a great Super Bowl game.

So if you and your friends want to take it in we will open at noon with euchre registration starting at 1 p.m. It will cost you $5. To register for the euchre but all proceeds will be going back as prizes. Don't forget the BBQ will be going all day long.

Bring your wife, husband or sweetheart down to the Branch for the Valentine's Dance. We have some very special prizes set aside for this special night. The dance is open to everyone and starts at 8 p.m. Again no charge. Comrade Carl Fisker informed me this past weekend that we're going back to Rama. He has arranged buses, meals and a great day for anyone wishing to go. It will cost you $10 for a meal at Rama, a bus leaving at 8 a.m. and a meal back at the branch. You will be back around 5 p.m. See you at the Branch.
