At Chrysler we're celebrating 15 years of magic.

When the world's first minivan rolled off the Chrysler assembly line in Windsor, it was called the "Magic Wagon". Because it magically transformed the way Canadian families travel. And ever since that historic day, we've listened to those families and introduced virtually every trend in the industry. Like dual air bags, dual sliding doors and built-in child safety seats. Result? Chrysler has been the best selling minivan in Canada for a record 15 straight years. What's more, Carguide Magazine has just named Chrysler its 1999 "Best Buy in a Minivan". So to celebrate all this, Chrysler proudly introduces the 15th Anniversary Platinum Series Minivan. It comes with over 28 standard features, plus 15th Anniversary extras like sunscreen glass and Platinum Finish. Now that's magic!
