It was a day for Champions

3-1. Chapman also opened scoring for A & S with help from Ashton Demers and Dustin Gamble. Craig Matta, named most improved player for Varanelli, scored with help from Robert Kellas and Dan Payne.

Graeme Copeland showed why he was named top league goalie as he earned a shutout in Halton Power Line's 2-0 win over Acton Precast Concrete for the "A" consolation win. Derek White and Nick Perron named most improved player, scored for Power Line. Perron and Alana Chan, named MVP and Derek White had assists.

Corey Slater had a pair of goals to help Acton Kinsmen doubled Acton Terminal Warehouse 4-2 for the Pee wee "B" consolation final. Peter Cobb, named team MVP, and Scott Williams also had singles. Assists went to Jonathan Tysoe and Nick Newby. Matt Freckleton and Rob Rolfe scored for ATW.

BANTAM/MIDGET

Dave White, named team MVP, and Nick Mastro had singles as Acton Subway edged Russ & Dave's Crew 2-1 for the Bantam/Midget championship win. Assists went to Mastro, White and Ryan Bailey. Darren Banks scored for R & D's.

Subway edged St. John's Trophies 3-2 to get into the championship final. Dave White had a pair of goals and Ryan Bailey had a single. Nick Mastro had an assist. Shane Haslam scored twice for St. John's and had an as-

ist. Subway coach Tony Mastro was named league coach of the year.

COACHES

With a little help from the referee, Mastro's Maniacs tied Smith's Snipers 8-8 during the coach's game at the Day of Champions. Smith allegedly scooped all of the younger coaches and although the elder Maniacs held their own for a while, they lost their legs in the second period. Ref Steve McKnight saved the Maniacs from the loss by giving Sniper goalie Malcolm McDonald a penalty and then making him serve it.

Girls' hockey champs decided

INTERMEDIATE DIVISION

The First Nations Engineering Services Ltd. goalie Amy DeLaFranieler shutout Dave's Service centre to lead her team to victory in the intermediate division of the Halton Hills Girls' Hockey Association championship.

They continued with their dominant regular season play by scoring two goals in the first period, one in the second and two in the third for a 5-0 victory.

Robin Harvey had two goals and one assist to go along with her regular season scoring title. Harvey opened the scoring in the first period and it turned out to be all that her team needed to capture the championship. Harvey's first goal was assisted by Morgan Dauphinee Bell with the first of her two assists. Shari Kogan closed out the scoring in the first period with a helper going to Katelyn Finlay. Other scorers were Stephanie Grave and Nicole Boccia. Assisting were Rachelle Sommerville, Elizabeth Sinnot, Harvey, Dauphinee Bell and Stacey Greenwood.

JUNIOR DIVISION

In a closely contested Junior Division game that featured end to end rushes and outstanding goaltending, the outcome had to be settled by a shootout. Rosie Baker of Lawlor & Co. scored the tying and winning, goals to propel her team to the junior division championship.

Robyn scored a goal in each of the first and second periods to stake Halton Hills Rad & Tire to a 2-0 lead. Assisting on Henderson's goals were Kaitlyn Andrews, Erin Broderick and Meghann Blaney.

Kaitlyn Richardson scored for Lawlor & Co. in the second period to set the stage for Baker's heroics. Assisting on Richardson's goal were Amanda Laborie and Kelly Collorossi. With the winding down Baker raced down the ice on a breakaway and caught the bottom corner of the net to put the game into overtime.

Goaltenders Emma MacDonald of Halton Hills Rad & Tire, Melissa Lavoie of Lawlor & Co. were outstanding in the shootout stopping the first three shooters that they face.
