Lakeside IODE meets

By Dot Norton
Dot Norton hosted the March meeting of the Lakeside Chapter of the IODE.

Education coordinator Rosealea Higgins read the members a thank you letter from the northern Ontario school the chapter supports. Rosealea had also passed along information on bazaar ideas the school might be able to use for some of their own fundraising events.

The chapter also received further information about the continuing need for Snak Pacs and shoes for children as well as details about Camp Trillium, a summer camp for children with cancer.

Joyce Sprowl handed out grooming bags chapter members will fill to give to destitute men, women and children. The group is also preparing a layette to be added to their bale of donations to the needy.

Members learned the national breakdown of IODE membership ranges from 74 per cent at age 60 to half a percent under the age of 25.

Chapter members met at Joyce Sprowl's home to tie a quilt to be added to the group's bale for the needy.

Rosealea and Kathleen will co-convene the IODE's November bazaar and already members are offering good ideas.

The chapter will meet for a Chinese dinner at 6 p.m. on May 4.

SENIORS' REC. CTR.

By Dot Redekop
Congratulations to Lloyd Broostad on winning two weeks ago. Hope he lets Shirley share some of it.

We are having a fundraiser the last Friday in June, the 25th. We don't know what to call it yet but we are asking people to donate a new craft or gift. It could be a raffle, draw or penny-type sale. Depends on our donations. If you wish to donate, phone the Centre at 853-5951. We would like to know by May 10. Thanks. Our monthly euchre is on Wednesday, May 5 at 7:30 p.m.

Hilda Short did it again. If you remember she got the 29 hand in crib. She also won a game of bingo. Great luck, Hilda.

We still have seats for the Johnny Ginger show and Casino Rama for Tuesday, Apr. 27, leaving at 8:30 a.m. We see Johnny at the Orillia Opera House, the on to Casino, returning around 9 p.m. The cost is $21.

Betty and Barb have two trips in May plus the one to Casino Rama on May 26.
