

WINNIE THE POOH AND FRIENDS joined the Rockwood Wildlife Rescue in Saturday's parade. Later the rescue showed their one month old baby raccoons at Pioneer Days.

LOOK WHO CAME TO TOWN: Tigger and Rabbit helped the Rockwood Vet Clinic win first prize for a business float in Saturday's parade.

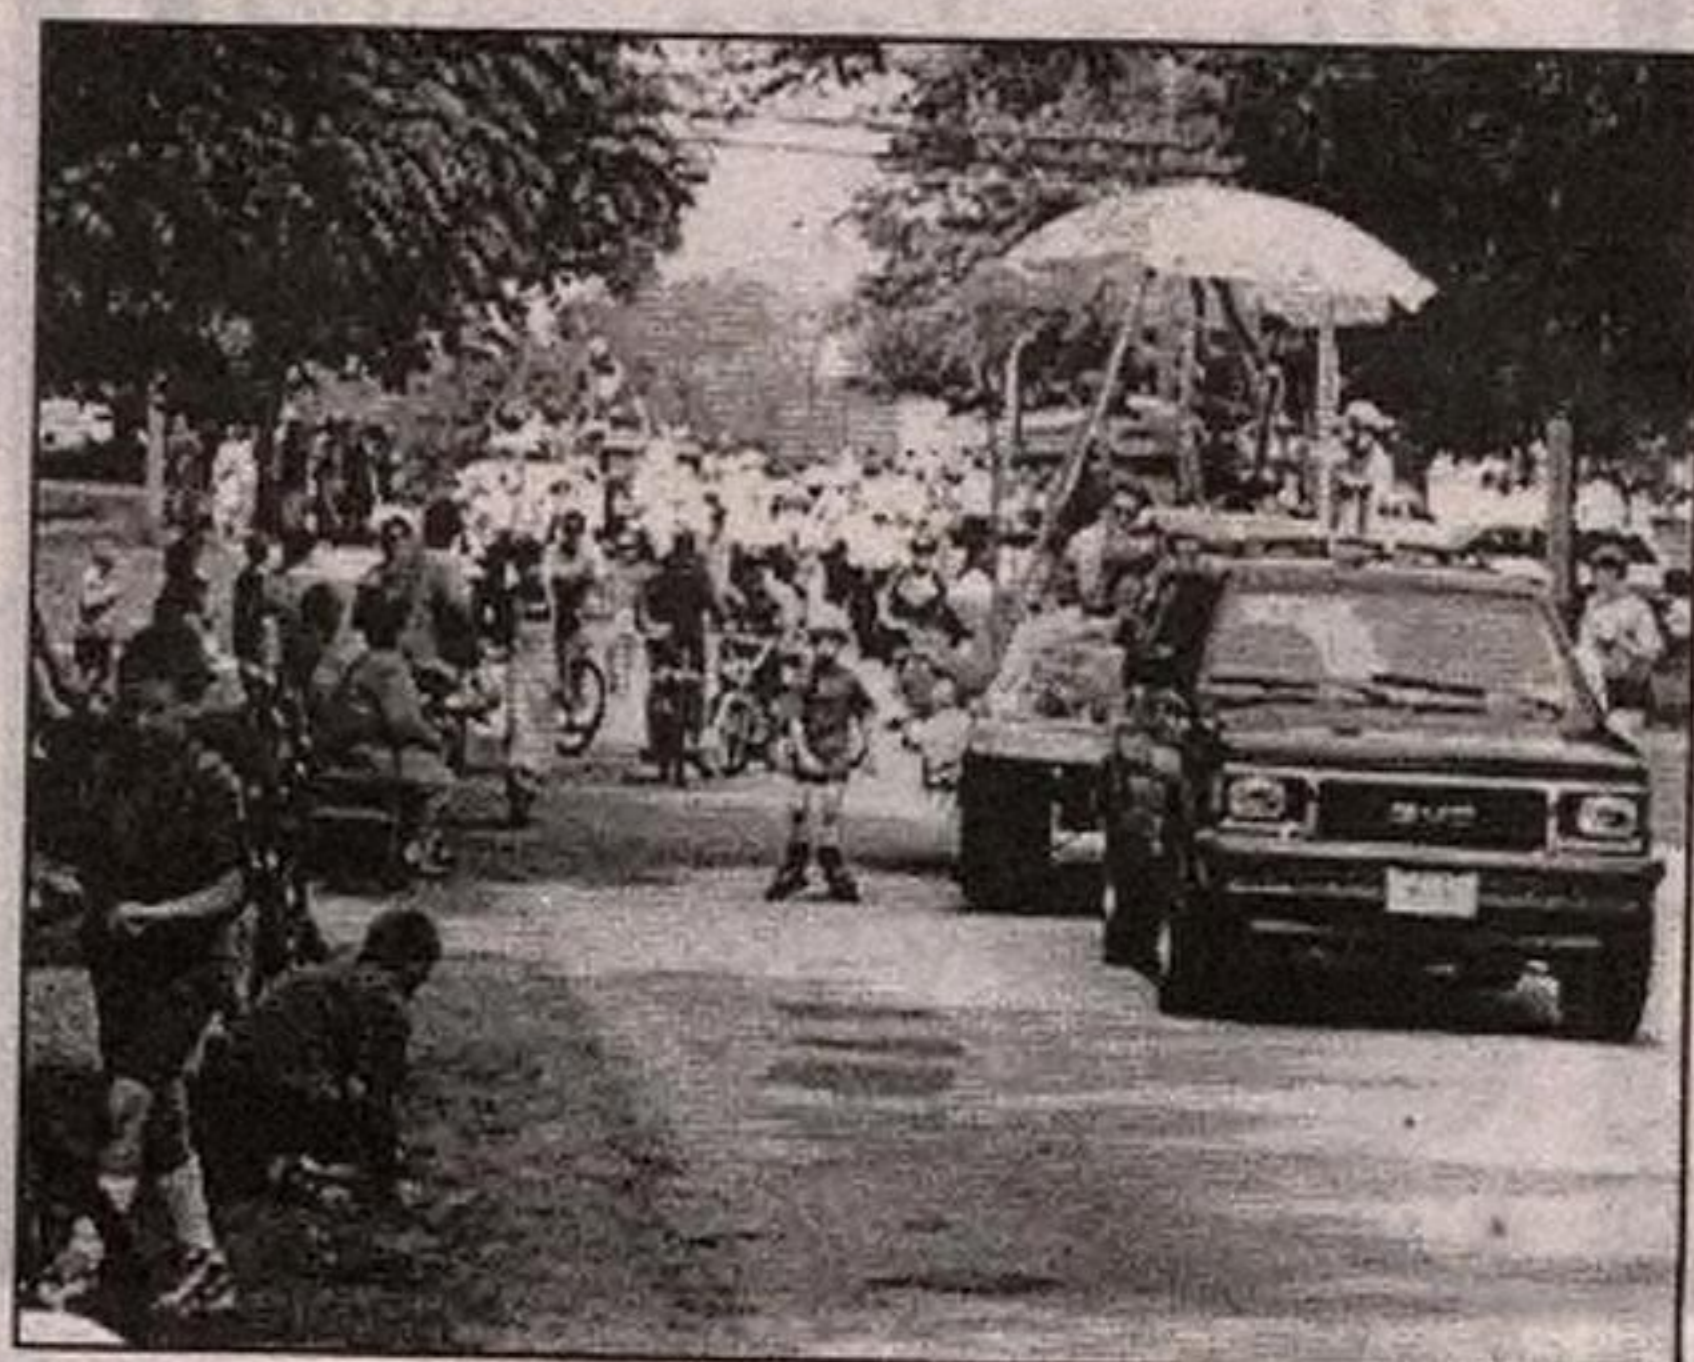

Rockwood Pioneer Days '99

LEARNING IS FUN: The Rocking Horse Centre staff and children participated in Saturday's big parade.

Through the Lens

with Angela Tyler

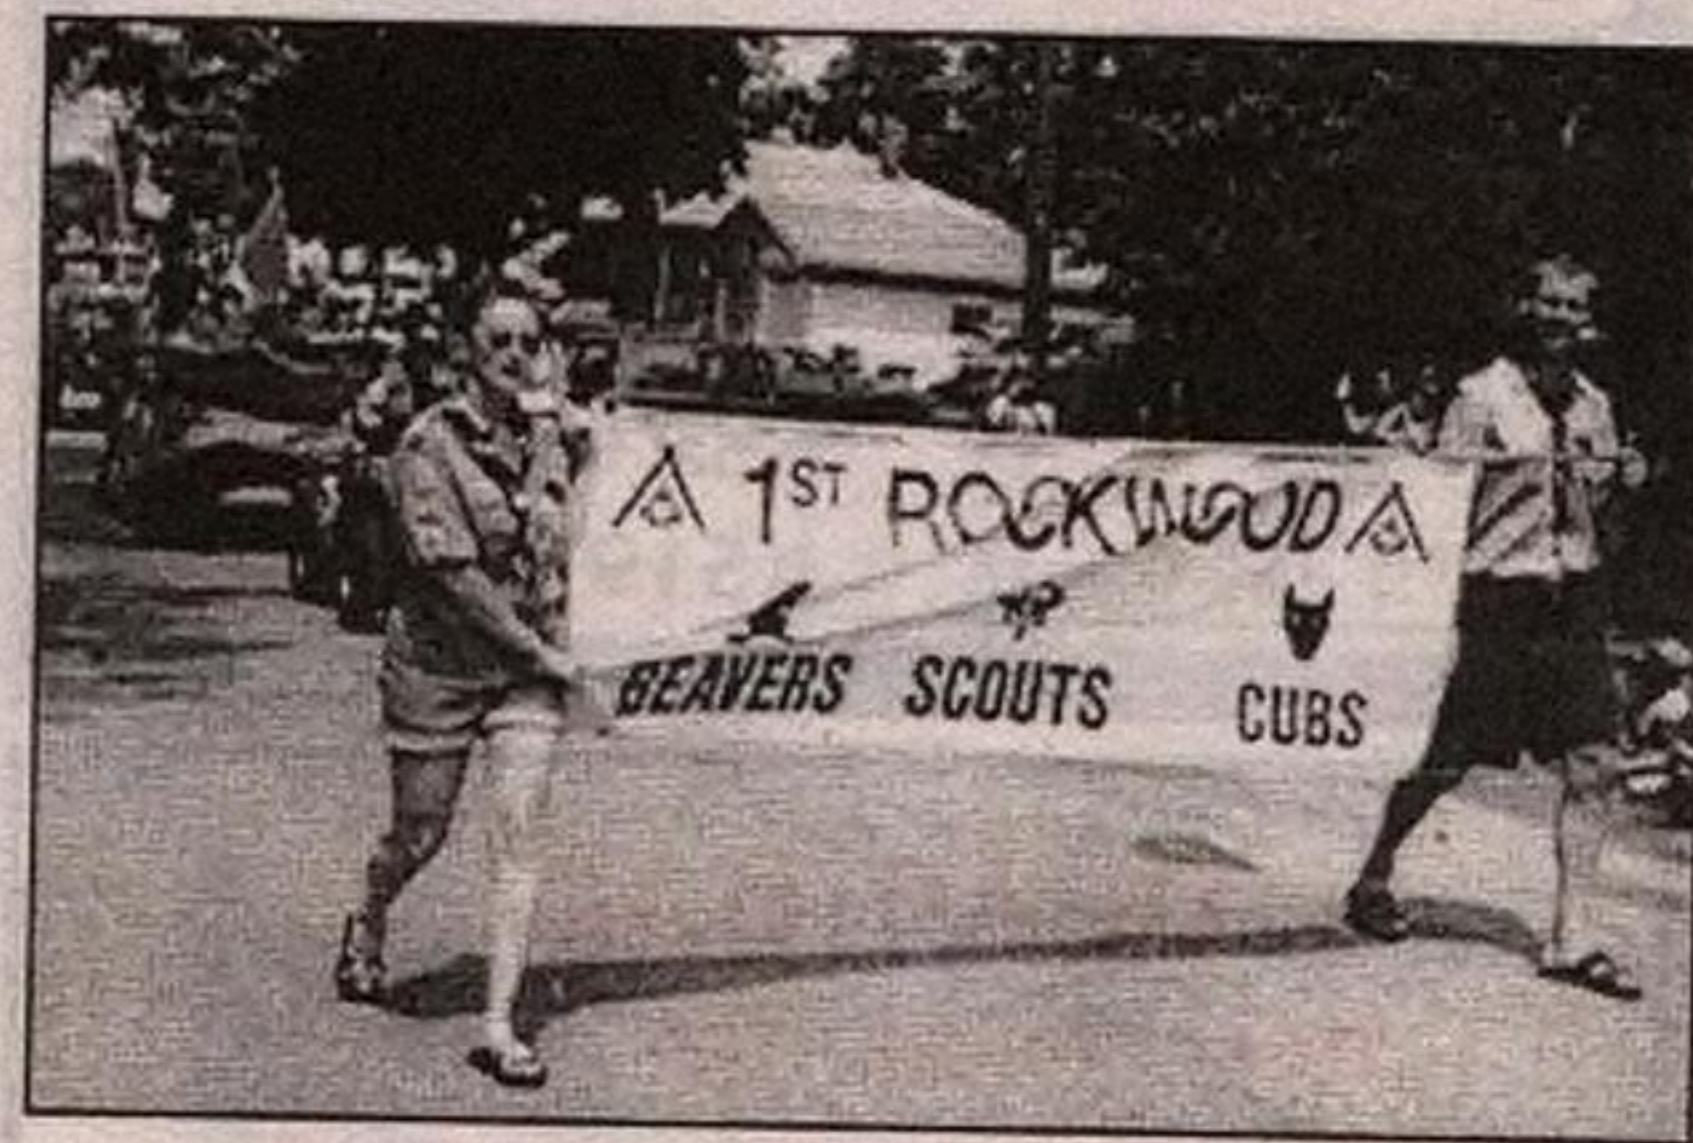

BEAT THE HEAT: The shaded streets of Rockwood provided the perfect setting for Saturday's parade.

ALL WE NEED IS WATER: The 1st Rockwood Beavers, Scouts and Cubs showed spectators the know how on water safety.

WHAT'S ALL THE BUZZ ABOUT? She might be a dog, although her name is Kitty, but on Saturday she was a bee for the Pioneer Days Parade in Rockwood.

MARCHING PROUD: Members of the 1st Rockwood Beavers, Cubs and Scouts lead their float in the parade.

IN THE LEAD: The Acton Citizens' Band helped kick off Saturday's Pioneer Days Parade.

RETURNING SOUNDS: The Canadysli Band from Toronto made a return engagement at Saturday's Parade.