Five medals for Flamingo

Flamingo Dance Studio students received five medals at a recent Footloose Dance Competition. Angelynn Bland picked up an honourable mention and a silver medal in the Acro solo routine while Danielle DeCourcy earned a silver medal for a solo jazz routine.

Julie Tulloch and Angelynn Bland received a bronze medal for a jazz duet.

Elyse Barkhouse, Daniell DeCourcy and Angelynn

Bland took the silver medal in the baton trio division. More recently at the Ontario Baton Association Competition the group added a fourth in the beginner level at the provincial competition.

Julie Tulloch, Kourtney Russiani, Kayla Russiani and Amanda Edwards earned a bronze medal in the baton small group division at Footloose and received a first, a third and two fourths at Ontario Baton competition.

More recently at the Ontario Baton Association Competition the group added a first and fourth in the beginner level at the Western Regionals. In the provincial championships they placed fourth.

Studio operator Dorri Bland congratulated the girls on their fine performances and pointed out this is their first year of competition.

July 8 Bland and DeCourcy will perform their solo routines at a Footloose National.

Charges laid

Four Guelph males, two of them Young Offenders, face six counts of theft and possession of stolen property after they were arrested in Eden Mills on June 19. Guelph OPP stopped a car in the village at 5:10 a.m. and arrested the quartet following thefts from a number of motor vehicles in the village.

POLICE BEAT

Antiques stolen

An unusual group of antique weapons were taken from a tent at the Everton Scout Camp in the early hours of June 19 during preparations for a medieval re-enactment. Three swords, two daggers and a mesh mask, all of them genuine antiques, were taken.

Break-ins

Thieves hit a couple of locations in Eramosa recently. Over night June 14-15 a locked door was forced at Eden House and a coffee jar full of cash and lottery tickets was taken.

Then the rear door was kicked open on a Fourth Line residence on June 17. The thieves made off with a total value of $4,500.
