Minor Soccer Report

GIRLS
Under-11 House
Caitlin Bowen's lone goal and shutout goaltending by Veronica Edwards gave Empress Communications a 1-0 win in an away game with Puslinch last Tuesday. Strong midfield play by Stephanie Dodds and Joanie Weaver helped in the victory. Courtney Moddle and Jessica Dunn played strong two-way games.

BOYS
Under 13 Select
A pair of goals from Joe Douglas and singles from Jason Beattie and Paul Sharples, who also had two assists, gave Halton Hills Furniture a 4-4 tie with Georgetown Eagles last Monday. Simon Sharples played a strong defensive game.

Minor Ball Report

GRASSHOPPER
Both Mitchell Reynolds and Cole Frisker blasted grand slam home runs in NASA's 24-17 win over Emerald Isle last Monday. Tyler Townsley was sharp behind the plate and at first base. Brandon Lockyer had two singles and a double for six RBIs for Emerald. Dylan Hitchcock and David Khoo each had two doubles and four RBIs.

ROOKIE HARDBALL
The Acton II team of eight and nine-year-olds has been forced to a third game in their league final against Carlisle. After defeating Carlisle 19-15 Monday in Carlisle, Acton lost 18-10 at home on Tuesday. The league includes teams from Campbellville, Brookville, Kilbride, and Carlisle as well as two Acton teams.

Paperweight Bulldogs keep right on winning

The Georgetown Toyota paperweight Bulldogs continued their winning ways — having lost just one game all season — with four decisive wins in Friendship Day play recently in Mimico. Led by three goals from Michael Curtis, the Bulldogs downed Whitby 7-1. Justin goals and Jake Wood had a single and an assist.

Curtis also led the way in game two with two goals in an 8-1 trouncing of The Beaches. James Dowell had a pair of goals and Wood, Nick Pierog, Seth Laidlaw and Casey Lyons had assists. The Bulldogs downed Mimico 6-2 with goals from Jason Crawford (2), Rasmussen, Dowell, Wood and Brian Timmerman. Laidlaw led the scoring with four goals in the final game the Bulldogs demolished Mimico II 12-1. Crawford, Rasmussen and Kyle Moore each had two goals and Dylan Auty and Michael Curtis.

Road closed during negotiation

The Tactical Response team and a negotiator from Halton Region Police closed Highway 7 on Georgetown's Main St. N. for over two hours Wednesday. Officers responding to a call about a possible break-in at 7:30 a.m. found a note suggesting the home's male occupant might injure himself or others.

The man surrendered around 12:45 p.m. He was taken to Georgetown Memorial Hospital.
