Lakeview reunion Sunday

Those who lived in the first homes in Lakeview, and their successors, held a potluck reunion and picnic on the lawns of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Bristow and adjoining parkland Sunday. Over 70 men, women and children enjoyed the late afternoon fun, renewing acquaintances and friendships.

First people to move into the Lakeview subdivision 43 years ago were Jack and Joyce Carpenter who still live on Elizabeth Drive. Fairy Lake and the similarity to their homes in England drew them to the Acton homes after viewing houses in several other town around Toronto. Next to arrive were Stu and Nan Reed and family, who were unable to attend Sunday's get-together.

The idea was hatched by Jack Carpenter who recruited Frances Marcoux and Irma Coles. Invitations were hand delivered to those who met the criteria. Games were played including beach baseball, marshmallow golf and horseshoes.

The occasion also gave former dance students of Joyce Carpenter the opportunity to renew acquaintances and exchange greetings.

"A Time for Me" Program:
Are you recently widowed or newly retired? Would you like an opportunity to meet new people and enrich your life? Perhaps you would be interested in "A time for Me", a personal growth series for adults of all ages. Two sessions will be held this fall - an afternoons series for adults over the age of 55 years and an evening series for adults age 30 to 55 years.

Participants enable each other to become more positive, confident, and competent as they become involved in and take responsibility for their own well-being. The groups are facilitated by trained volunteers.

For more information about this program or to register please call 853-3310.
