

LOADS OF FUN: Everybody from the kids to grandparents enjoyed the many amusement rides.

MANNING THE STATION: Indiana White took the engineer duties on the train ride at the fair.

KEEP ON TRUCKIN': Nicholas Paul took control of the wheel on the truck ride.

Photos by Angela Tyler
and Frances Niblock

MANNING THE GATE: Knights of Columbus Mike O'Leary and Peter O'Mara provided service with a smile at the Fair gates all weekend.

MIDWAY FUN: Children enjoyed lots of choices in rides including these fun dinosaurs.

PROUD PARENT: Eight-week-old Payton Fraser of Acton, being held by mom Daphne, stayed awake long enough to win first prize in the newborn to three-month-old girl's category at the Baby Show at the Acton Fall Fair.

FALL FAIR Through the Lens

SWEET SAILOR: Acton's Eric McCallum, 5 months, captured first place in the three-to-seven-month old age group for boys at the Baby Show. Parents Allison and Dave were understandably proud.

RIBBON WINNER: Samantha Burton, 18 months of Acton, poses with her proud dad Geoff, after winning first place in the 12 to-18-month-old girls' category at the Baby Show.

OH, BABY: Baby Show organizer Lois Nelles (left) presents Acton's Zachary Bourne and mom Alison, with a first place ribbon and prizes after the six-week-old won first prize in the newborn to three month old category.

STILT SKILLS: This stilt-wearing juggler had a better view of the Fair than most.

PUMPKIN PAL: Nineteen-month-old Laura Earnden of Brampton, brought to the Fair by her Acton grandparents, checks out one of the prize-winning pumpkins at the Fair.