

TWO WHEEL FUN: The Credit Valley Shrine Club Noble Riders brought their band of motorcycling members for the parade.

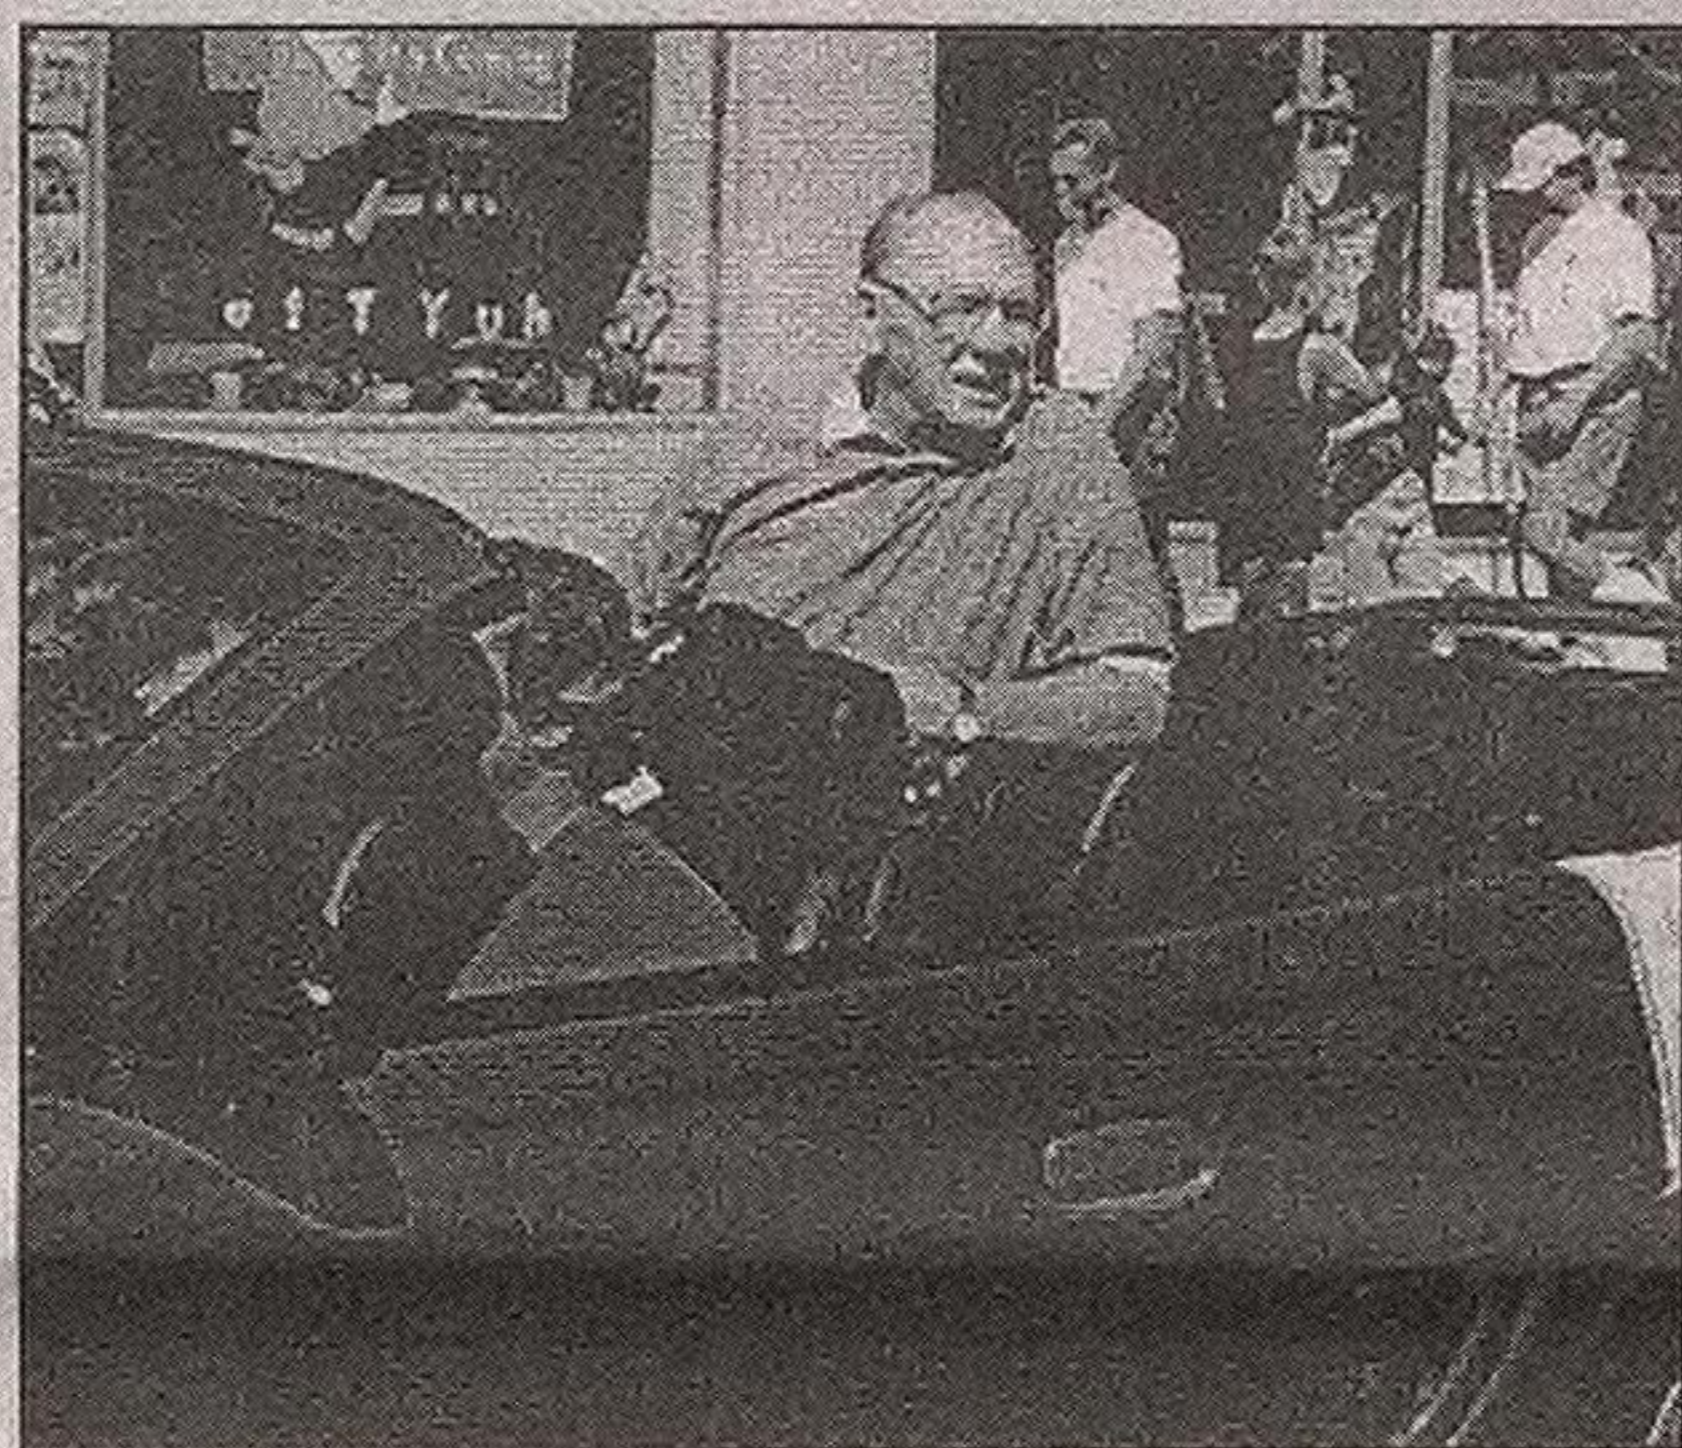

HOMETOWN PROUD: The Acton Citizens' Band kicked off the Fall Fair Parade with favourite marches.

ROYAL STYLE: Miss Acton Fall Fair 1999, Amanda Corp (left) and runner up, Krystle Thompson were all smiles during Saturday's Fall Fair parade.

Photos by Ted Tyler, Angela Tyler and Frances Niblock

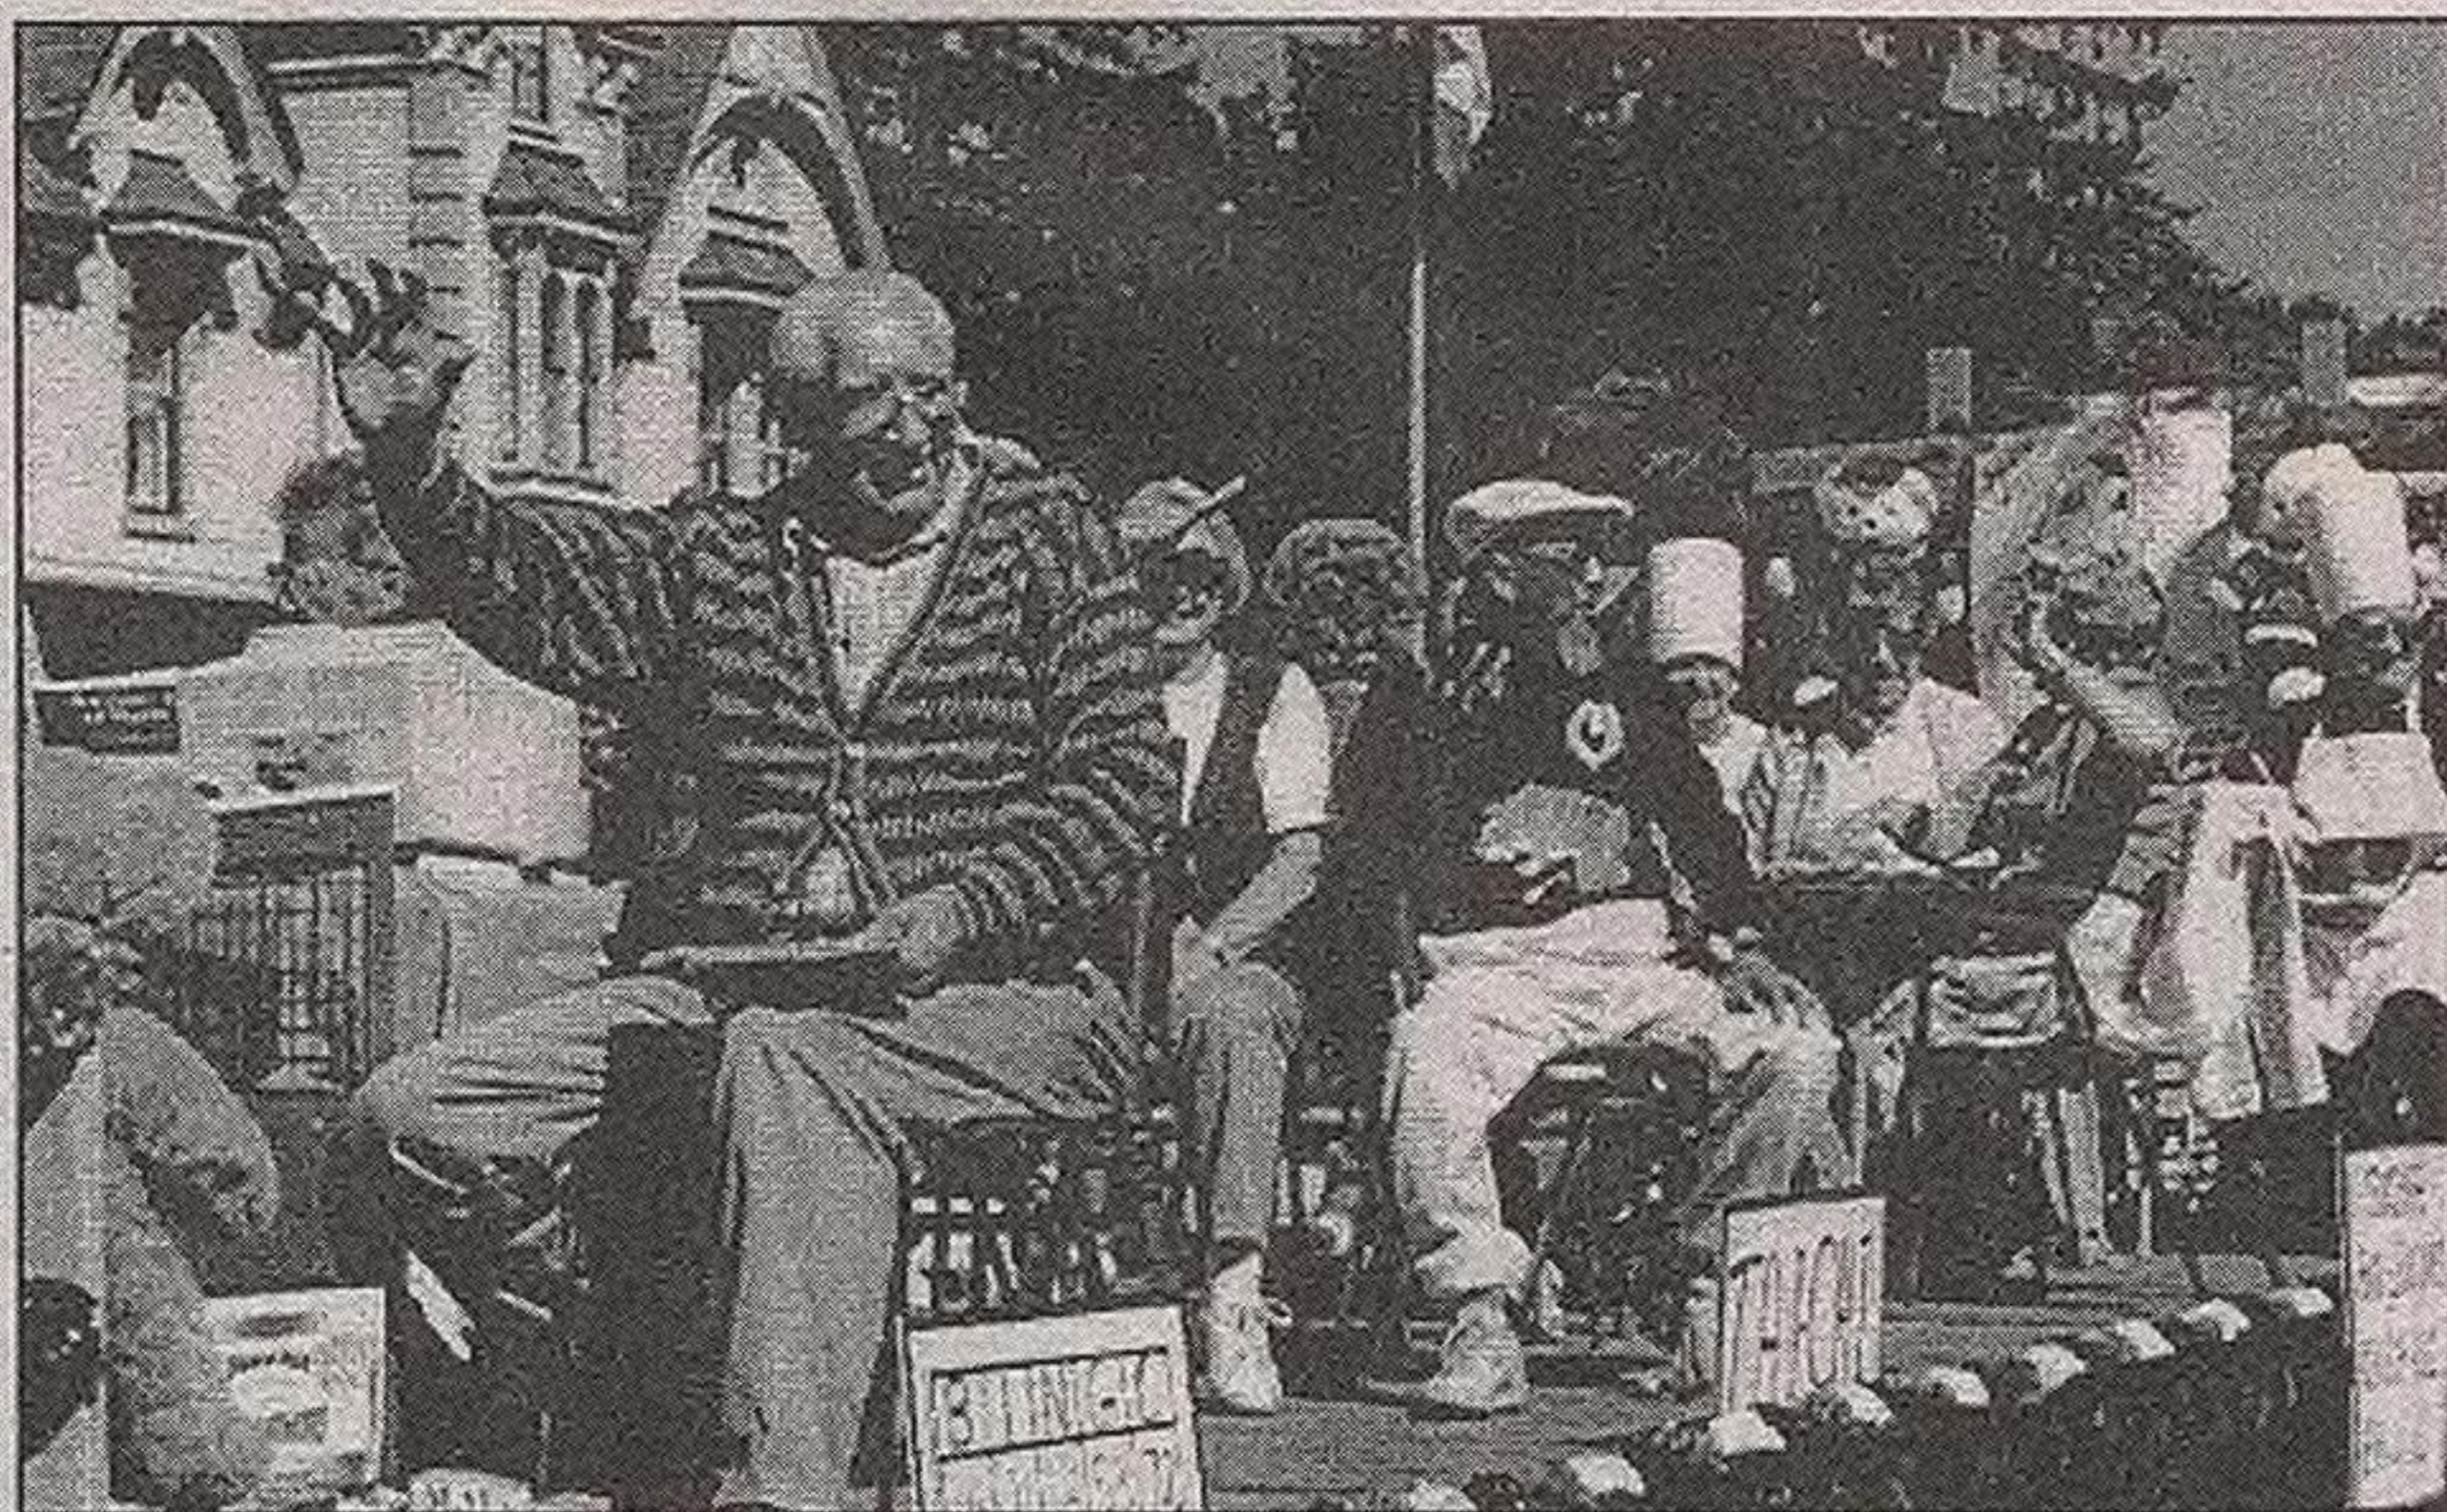

FALL FAIR Through the Lens

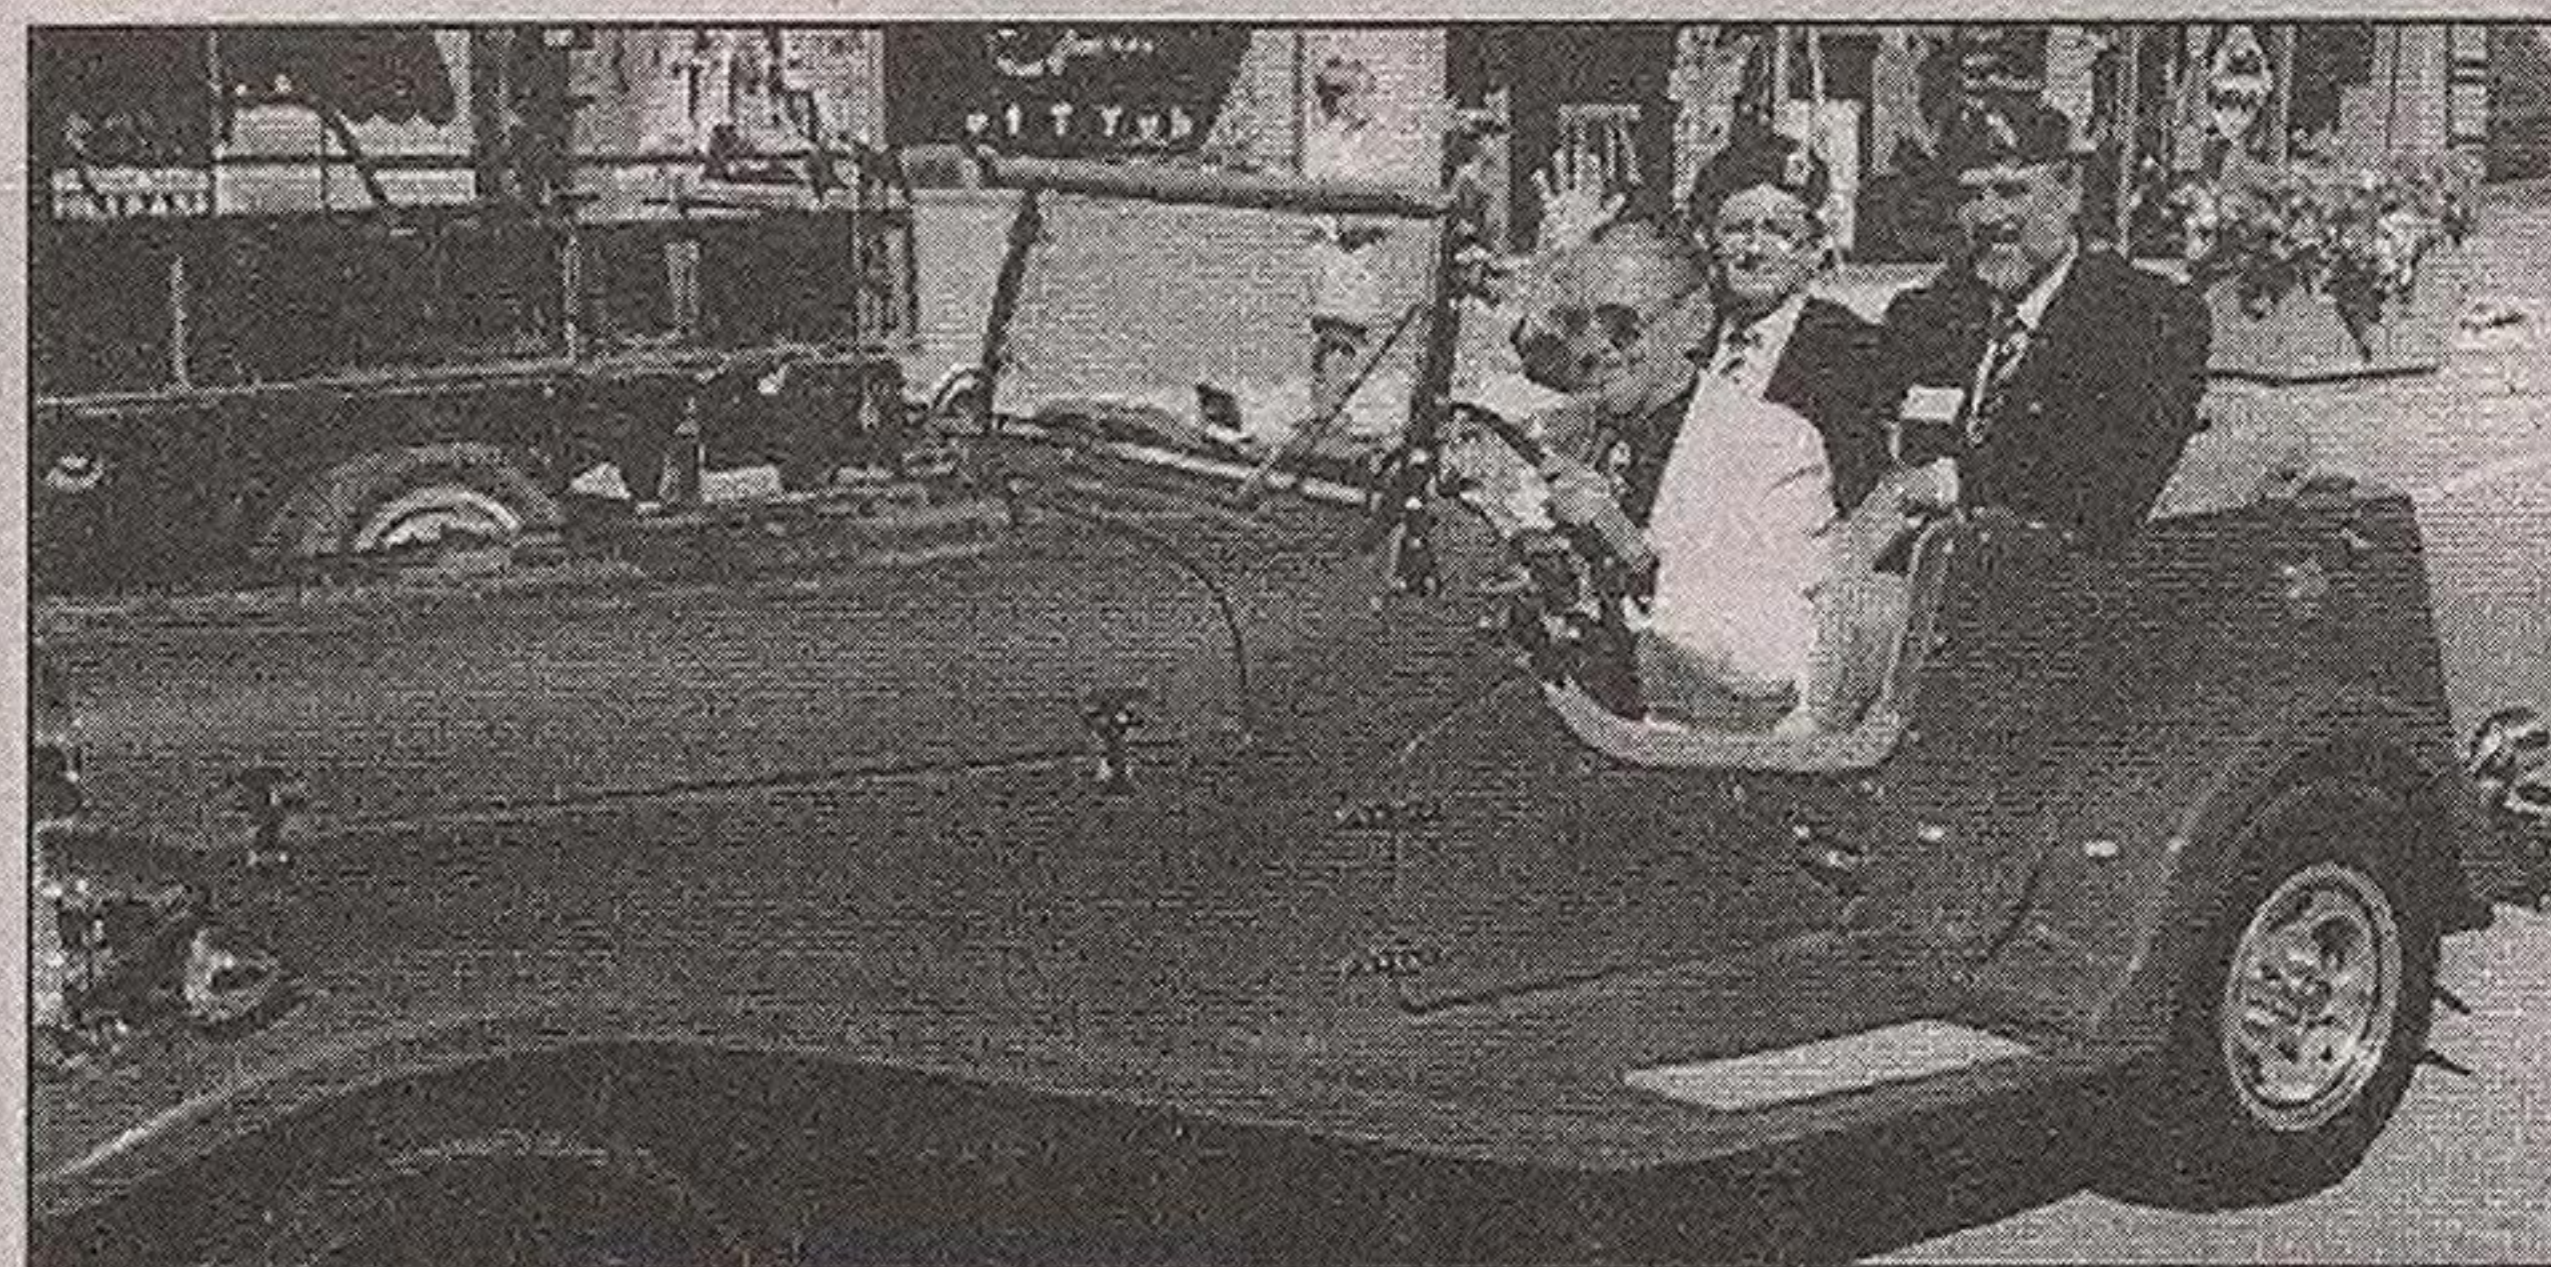

NHL COMES TO TOWN: NHL Hall of Fame member Johnny Bower was greeted by many fans.

KEEPING THE BEAT: Pipes and drummers also marched in the parade.

FANTASTIC FLOAT: The Acton Seniors Centre won first prize for the best float in Saturday's parade showing the many activities they have to offer.

GOING TO THE FAIR: Acton Legion Executive Carl Fisker (right) and Gary Mundy rode in this classic car during the parade.

SHOWING HIS STUFF: Chris "Elvis" Purtee takes a pose by the Boehmers truck before his performance on Saturday.

TEARING UP THE STREET: The Peel Shrine Club made a return visit to the Fall Fair parade and demonstrated their awesome maneuvers.