

PAGEANT WINNER: Amanda Corp, 16, (seated) was crowned Miss Acton on Friday night. Krystle Thompson (left) was the runner up and Tina Peterson and Jaime Lyons also participated in the pageant.

THE LEGS HAVE IT: Michelle Hillier of Acton was so impressed by Elvis impersonator Chris Purtee she had him autograph her thigh. Thankfully she was wearing tear away pants.

READY FOR THE SHOW: Chris "Elvis" Purtee heads to the stage in the big tent Saturday at the start of his Elvis impersonation show.

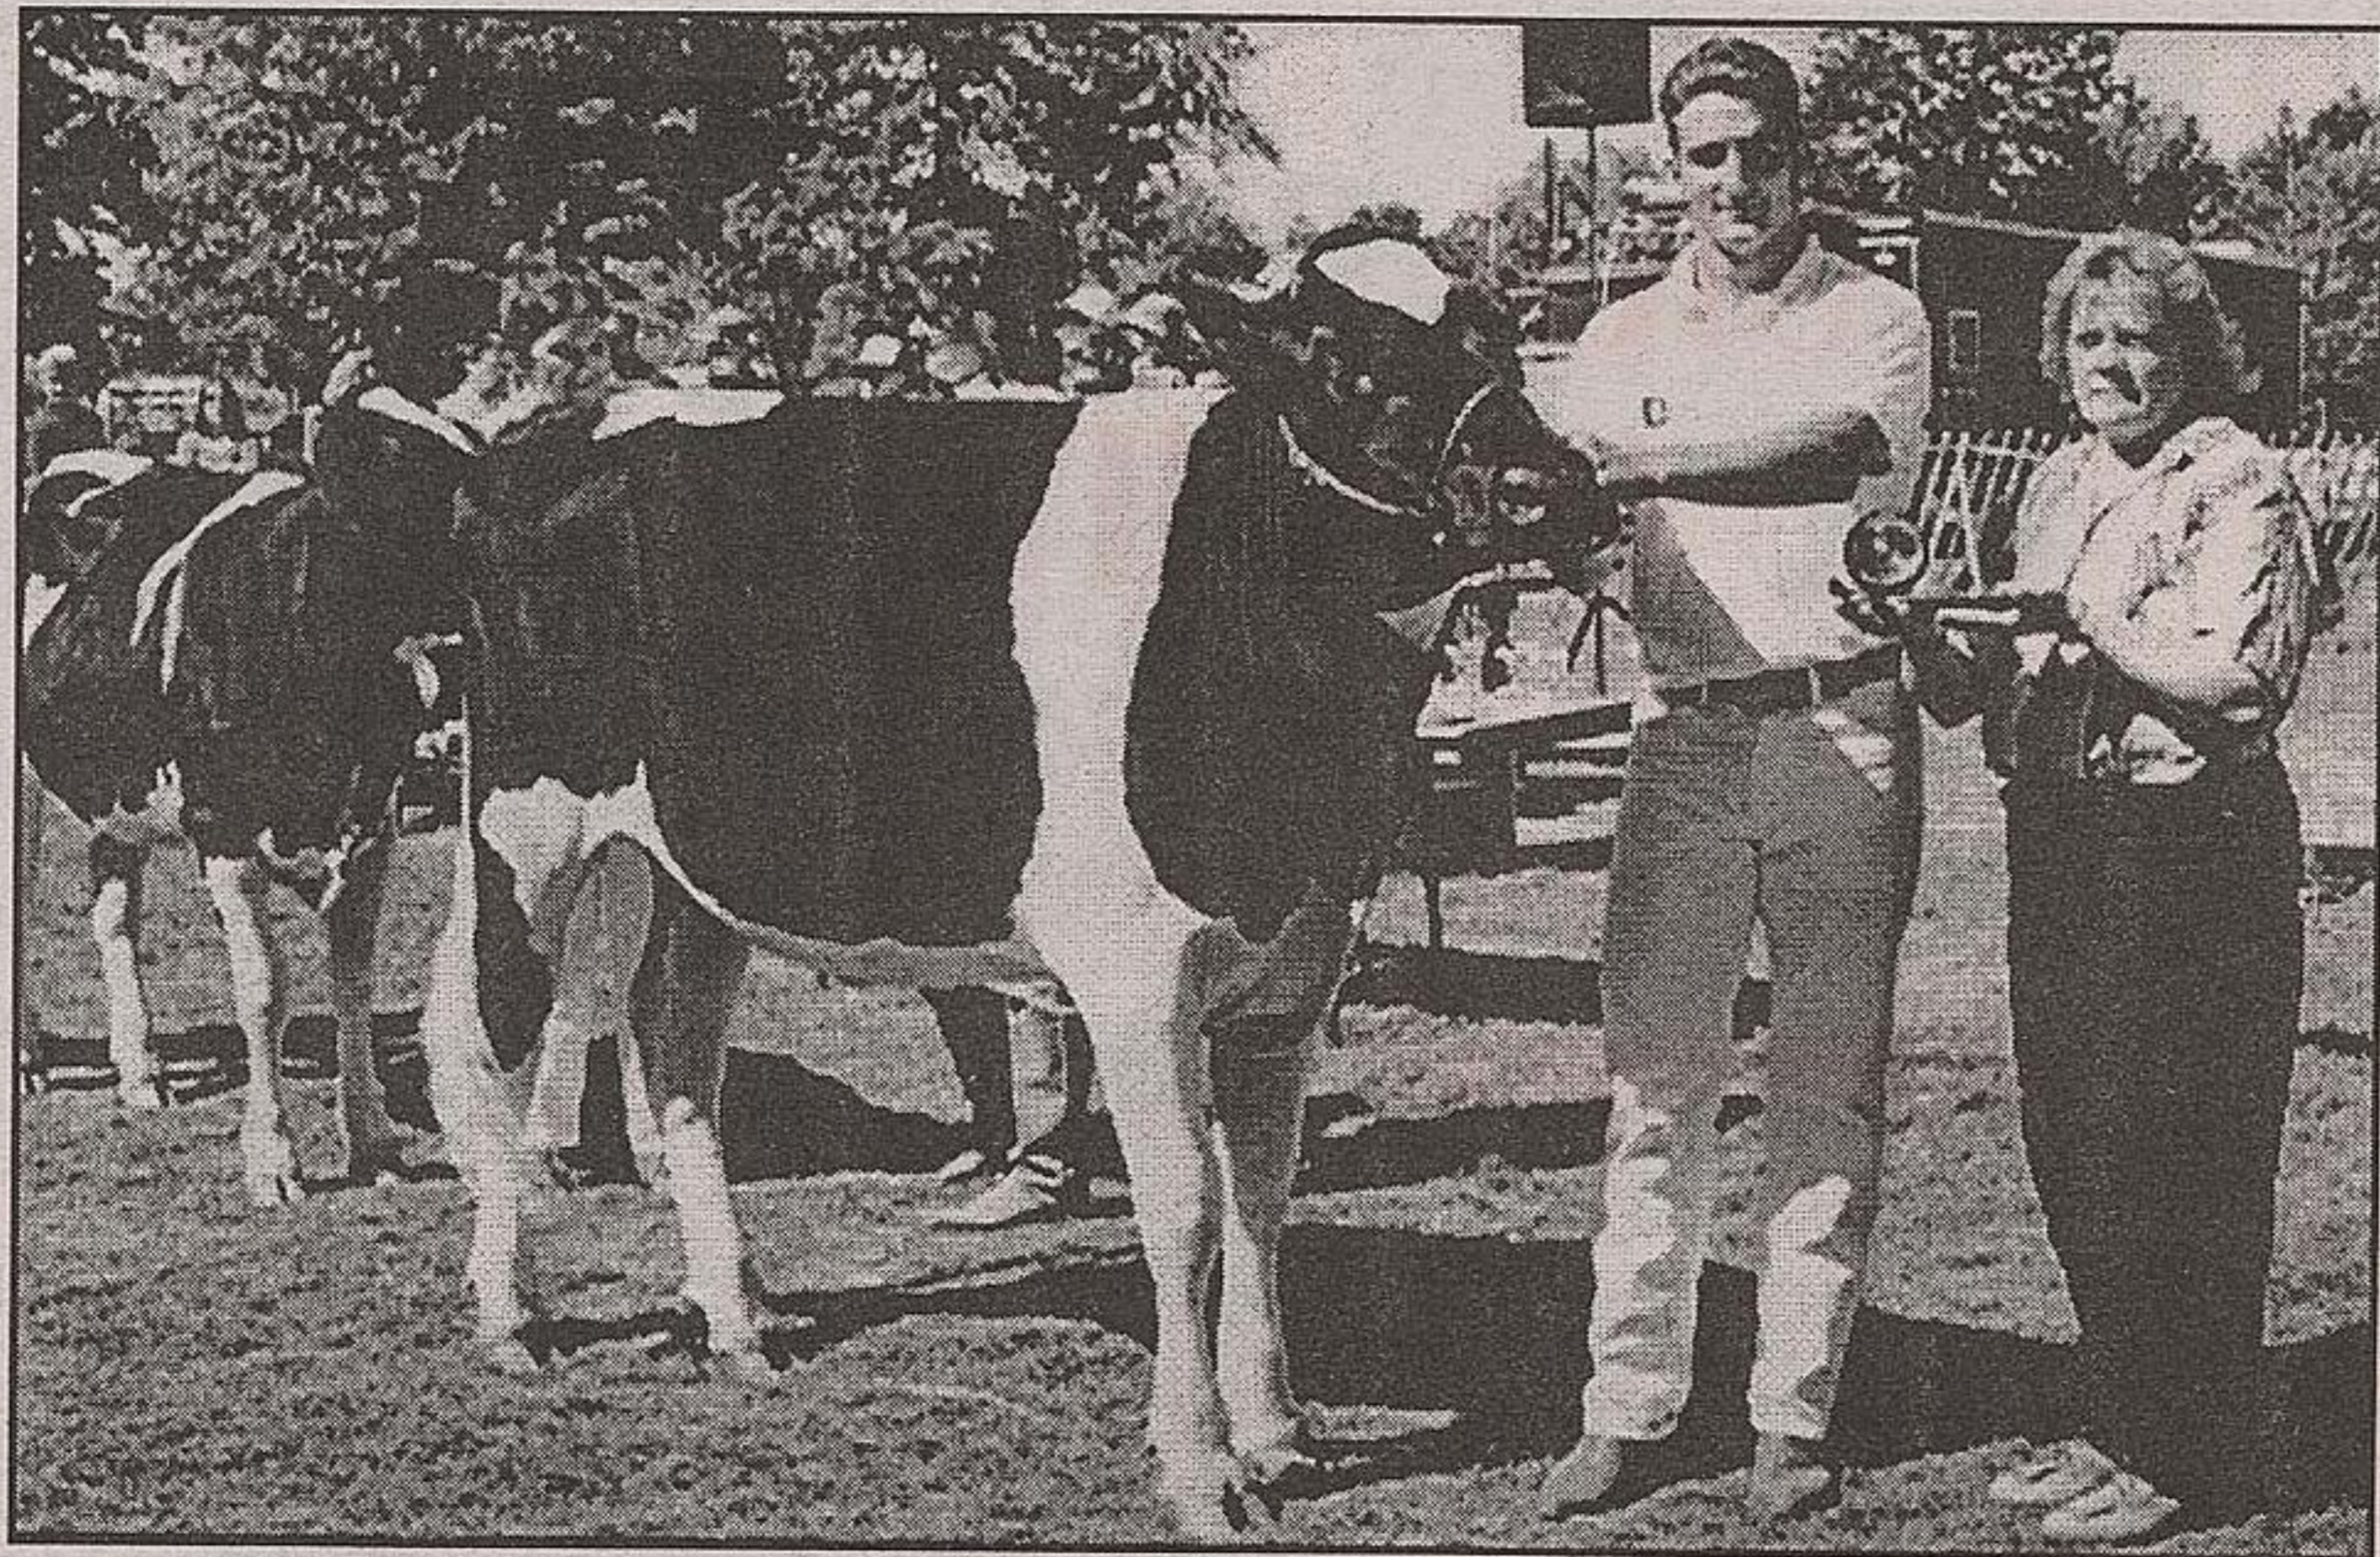

Through the Lens

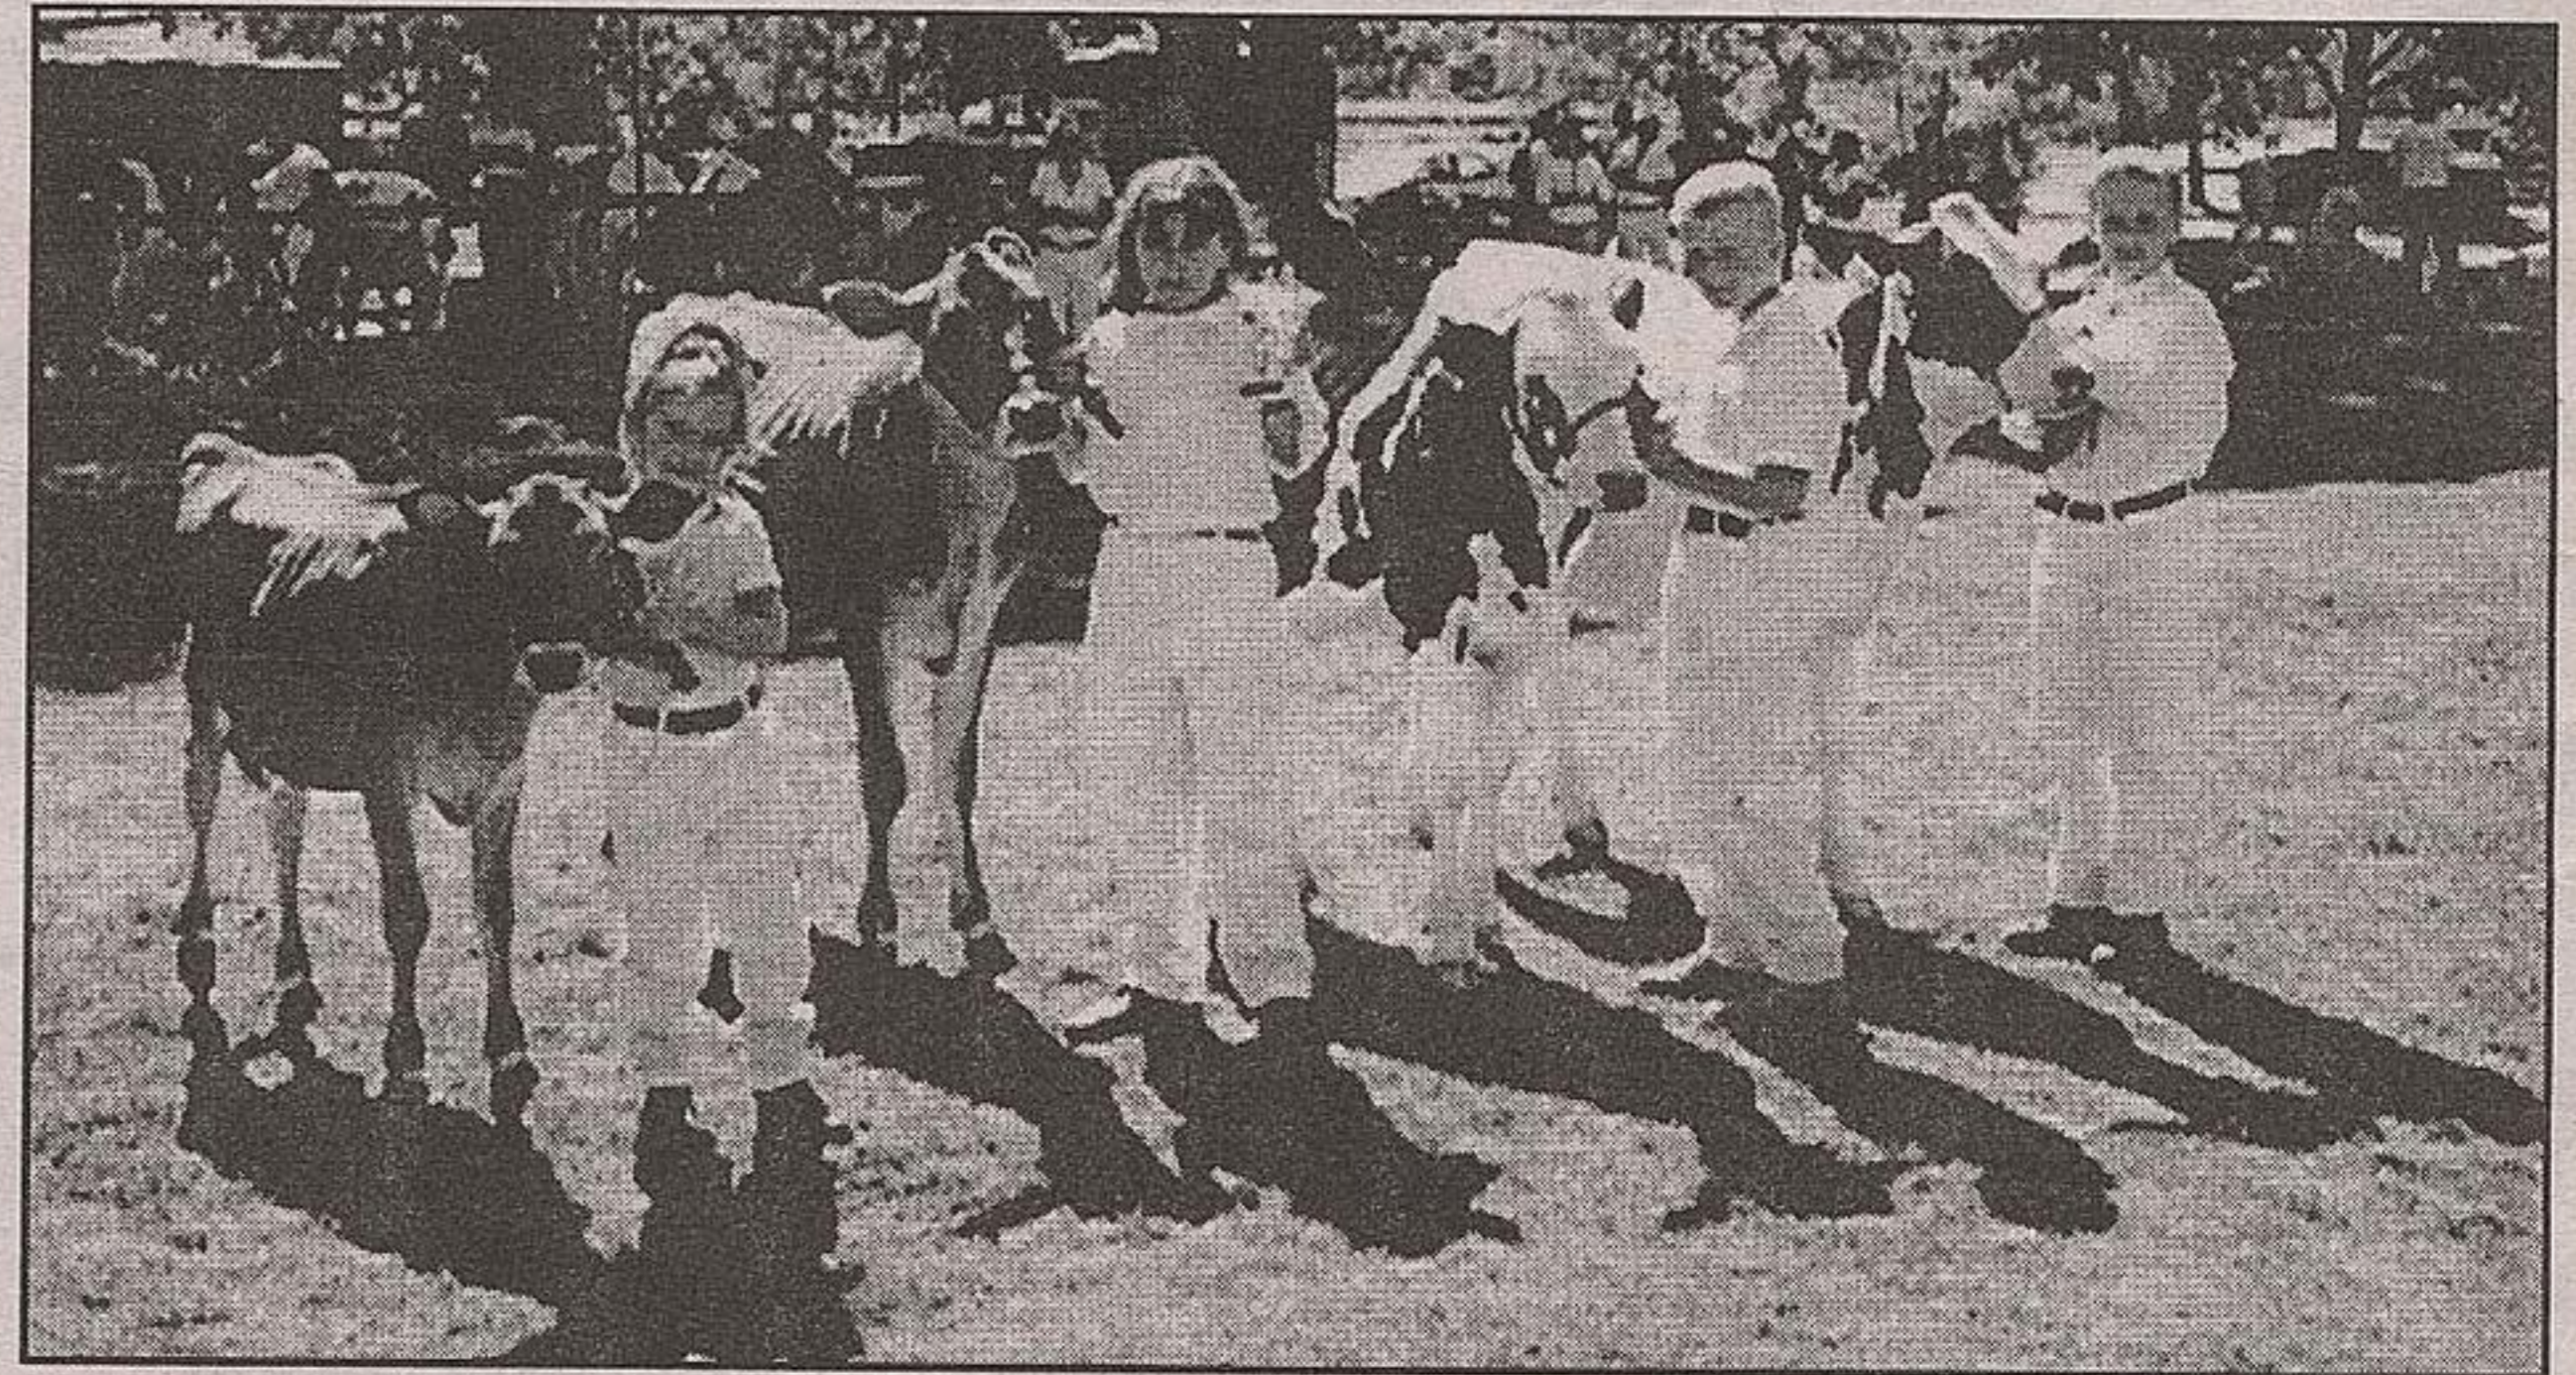

FAIR SERENADERS: Members of the Georgetown Children's Chorus entertained an appreciative crowd as the fair officially got underway.

FAIR TRADITION: Acton Citizens' Band leader George Elliott leads the band through several selections to officially open the fair on Friday night.

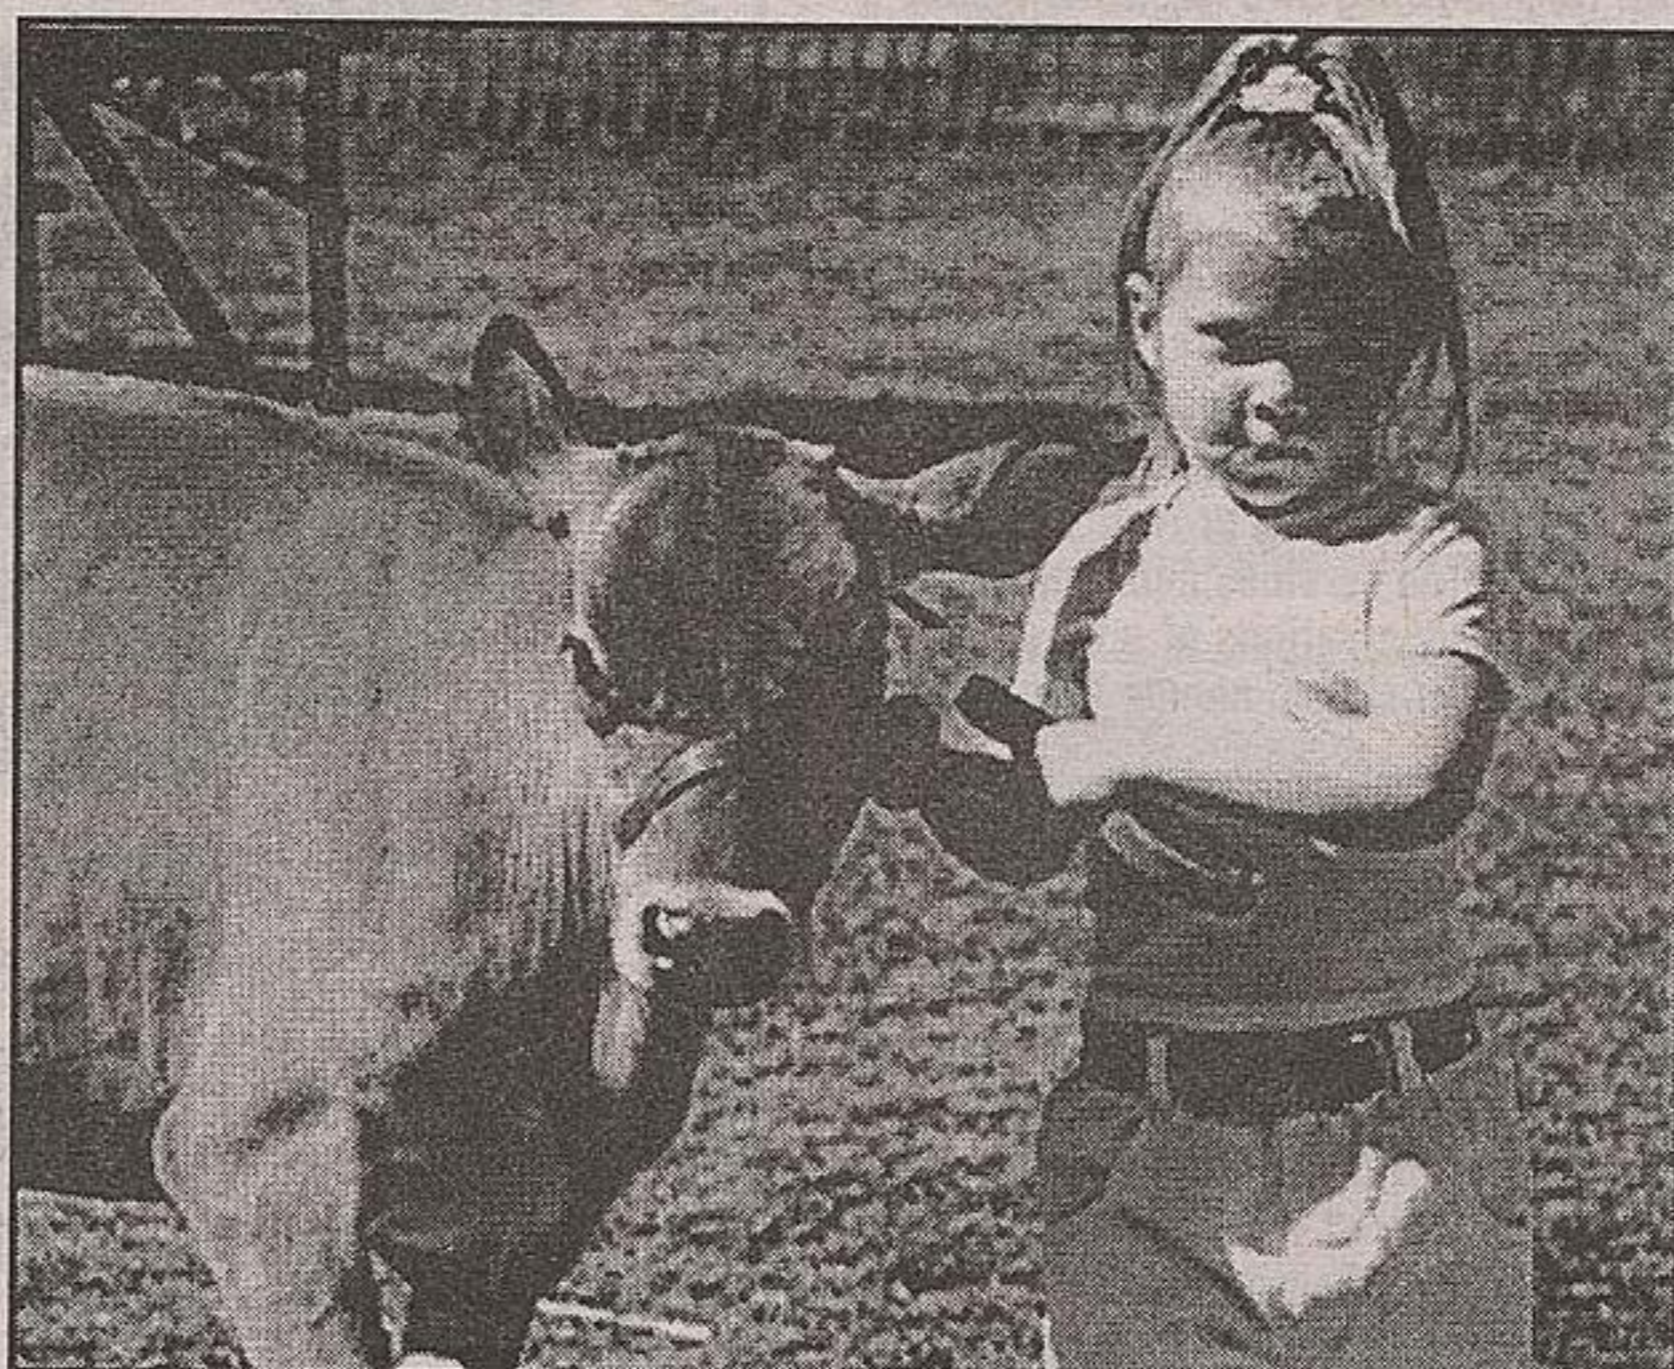

HOOF CHAMPS: Curtis Gregson, holding Wynfield Shawwna Jed who took first place in th calves division and was presented with a championship showman award from dairy cattle chair Marie Martin.

KIDS AND CATTLE: Members of the Halton pre 4-H Club lined up their livestock for judging at the cattle show. The showers include, from left, Shae-lyn Reiman, Kaitlyn VeVore, Troy Nurse and class winner Ben Davis.

ACE RIDER: Leslie McDonald of Burlington and Prelude captured two firsts, two seconds and was named division grand champion during the Hunter show at the fair.

RIGHT THIS WAY: Pre 4-H member Shae-lyn Reiman strutted her stuff during the dairy show.

Naomi Leute, right, and Paige Gregson were one, two in the 4-H showmanship for boys and girls 10-13 at the Fair.