

PLAYING ON: The Acton Citizens' Band made its regular appearance at Saturday's Santa Claus parade.

A TIP OF THE HAT: The Friends of Wordenview displayed a Turn of the Century Christmas float at Saturday's parade. - Angela Tyler photo

SANTA EXPRESS: Canada Post employees were busy collecting mail for Santa Claus during the parade. - Angela Tyler photo

TREAT TIME: Pictured above is one of the many clowns along the parade route giving out candy to all of Santa's good boys and girls. - Ted Tyler photo

Santa's Parade draws thousands

STUDENTS FROM THE FUTURE? Students from Robert Little dressed as robots and aliens for their parade float, which earned the school best school entry in the parade.

KEEPING WARM: Gigi the poodle kept warm during the parade in her owner, Bryan Robinson's, coat. - Ted Tyler photo

ROYAL TREASURES: Miss Acton Fall Fair, Amanda Corp and 1st runner up, Crystle Thompson were in a horse drawn carriage for the parade. - Angela Tyler photo

TASTY TREAT: The cotton candy man was popular with many parade goers. - Ted Tyler photo

MARCHING BANDS: Saturday's Santa Claus parade had many marching bands including Air Cadets and the Sea Cadets band. - Angela Tyler photos