 in the store formerly occupied by a custom sheepskin coat maker on Mill Street East. Hockey equipment, soccer gear, ball gloves. All the equipment needed for active sportswear is available at Time Out Sports.

Want a bargain this Christmas season? What better place to visit than Bargains Bazaar in the IGA plaza on Main Street North. There's a large variety of inexpensive gifts for just about everyone on your Christmas list. If they don't have it in Bargains Bazaar they can probably get it for you.

In that same plaza the IGA store has all the ingredients to satisfy the appetites for Christmas from turkeys to candy canes. All your grocery needs can be fulfilled in this attractive supermarket renowned for its friendly staff and the community spirit for so many worthwhile causes. Festive food bargains are already being advertised to make the holiday season a splendid feast.

Almost at the corner of Mill and Main, on Mill East is a relatively new business with tasteful clothing for children from newborns up and through the growing years. Forever Youngsters lives up to its name as a great place to shop for regular children's clothing or for those gift items under the Christmas tree.

Acton Pharmacy, Acton's oldest business, occupies an attractive store at the northwest corner of the community's busiest intersection at Mill and Main. The pharmacy carries a full line of prescription drugs and over-the-counter nostrums but also has those toiletries perfumes and make-up to fit every need. No need to travel. It's right there in Acton. Want a television set, some new furniture, refrigerators, ranges or decorative items for the home or for that special gift? You'll find Halton Hills Furniture on Mill Street East carries everything you need for your home or someone else's. And the prices compare with anything you'll find in the large box stores out of town. Best of all they're here when you experience a problem, not miles away.
