We can't begin to list all the goods and services available in Acton. We're only mentioning a few who are advertising on these pages. There are many more including two up-to-date travel agencies anxious to please their clients. Bruce Hood Travel in the Dills plaza on Mill street recently acquired American Express business. Ted Tyler Travel on Queen Street East can meet all your travel needs with experienced counselors. Can you think of a better gift than a ticket to some exotic island while most of the rest of us are battling snow and sleet? Or a cruise as an anniversary gift?

Got a handyman at home? Leathertown Lumber on Main Street North has so many gifts for that handyman's stocking: hammers, chisels, drills, slide rules, levels, etc. Building a backyard rink? They've got fencing and ice rink poly so Dad can turn out another edition of Wayne Gretzky.

Not feeling well after the fatigue of Christmas shopping? Drop in to see Joyce at Touch of Harmony. Her unique treatments might just make you feel hale and hearty for that fast approaching festive season and the Millennium. Or, after discovering the relaxing benefits of her services, how about one of her gift certificates to relieve the stresses of someone else on your shopping list? These are just a few of the businesses in Acton that can offer you gifts and make you feel good about holiday shopping.
