Best selling plans of the decade - 1999

Our last installment in the Best Sellers series boasts a combination of the most popular design features of the decade.

As costs go up and lots get smaller, the need for a fashionable compact design has gotten greater. This home definitely fits the bill.

A West Coast Modern exterior is enhanced by heritage details such as gable accents, decorative shingle, heritage style muntin bars that frame the windows, and furred out wood posts using ranchboard.

Inside an open plan for the living and dining room features a 9'-7" ceiling height. The gourmet kitchen offers plenty of cupboard and counter space, a work island, and a pantry. The combined kitchen and family room provides a spacious atmosphere for informal gatherings. A split staircase can be accessed from the kitchen or the main hall.

There are four bedrooms upstairs. The front left bedroom boasts the addition of a boxed out window seat. The master bedroom is deluxe featuring his and hers closets, as well as a walk-in, and a four piece ensuite with a soaker tub.
