Cards of Thanks

The family of the late Iain Williams wish to extend sincere thanks to relatives, friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness before and after the time of Iain's death, especially the lovely floral tributes, memorial donations and the many meals prepared for our family, especially from Wally and Jane Moffat.

To Pastor Tom Cullen, MacKinnon Family Funeral Home and staff for their help and support, Gary Barton for his meaningful reading from the Bible, Iain's son David for his touching eulogy, and to the Walker Lodge 321 for their ceremonial tribute to Iain. Also, to Mr. Joe Sellors for playing the bagpipes.

Iain had many special relatives and friends whose love and support helped us through good and difficult times.

Due to the efforts of many people we were able to keep Iain at home during his illness.

Special thanks to Dr. McWilliam, to all the Halton Branch VON care nurses, homemakers and PRN staff who went out of their way to make sure Iain was comfortable at home. To Maggie and staff at Acton Golf Course for a lovely reception.

We will always remember, Susan and family
