Juvenile Tanners lead Southern County league

The Acton Juvenile Tanners secured first place in the Southern County, Beechey League with a 6-1 win over Six Nations in an away game on Sunday. The win – the team's fourth consecutive victory in a week – gives it a 16-4-0 regular season record.

"I put (Jon) Routledge and (Jim) Corrigan together and they're hot – everything is just starting to click before the playoffs," said coach Rob Pemberton after Sunday's win, adding the team's penalty minutes have started to come down since fighters were benched.

In Sunday's 6-1 win, all of the scoring was in the second period beginning when Grant Russell netted a pass from Jim Corrigan and Adam Petch. Corrigan then scored with help from Russell. Jeff Newman had a single with help from Jeremy Bannerman, who then scored himself with help from Marc Forbes. Forbes scored the final two goals of the game, one with help from Jason Christopher and the second with help from Bannerman and his brother Andrew Forbes, called up from the Midgets.

Justin Babin earned the shutout as the Juveniles blanked visiting Langton last Monday. Routledge led the scoring with four goals and Corrigan had a hat trick and two assists. Jeremy Bannerman had a single and an assist.

Assists also went to Grant Russell (3), Kyle Artem, Jason Christopher, Ryan Oudesluys, Jeff Newman (2), Derrick McIntyre and Jeremy Bannerman.

Corrigan had another hat trick last Sunday as Acton downed Tavistock 5-3 at home. Adam Petch and Russell had singles. Helpers went to Routledge (3), Derrick McIntyre, Russell, Corrigan, Petch and Mike Kempton who played goal in the third period. Adam Field was in net for the first two periods.

Routledge led the scoring with two goals as the Juveniles beat Six Nations 5-3. McIntyre, Christopher and Corrigan had singles. Assists went to Chris Lee (2), Artem, Corrigan, Petch, Russell and Oudesluys. Kempton was between the pipes.

The Juveniles host St. Catharines on Saturday – game time 9:30 p.m. Playoffs begin after January 15.

Atom Selects take title at Chedoke tournament

The Acton House League Atom Select team stormed their way through a Hamilton tournament earlier this week – winning five straight games to bring home the hardware. "They played their hearts out and just never quit," proud coach Chuck LaRose said after the tournament.

"They never gave up, they played smart as a team and they played good solid hockey and they sure impressed their coaches."

The team never stopped skating and was a formidable opponent. In one match Acton had won 5-3, but with just eight seconds on the clock, they jumped on the puck at the face off, trying to wring out one more goal.

Acton dominated the first two periods of the championship final against St. Catharines with goals from Matthew Eaton-Kent, unassisted, and David Garvie who had help from Spencer Morrison. St. Kitts scored in the final minutes of the third period and Morrison made it 3-1 with help from Garvie. Brent Lane's "stay at home defence" earned him game MVP honours.

Goalie Corey Tennier was named tourney MVP. He was sharp throughout the five games, allowing nine goals.

Dylan McPhail had a pair of goals in the first game, a 4-1 win over Mountain Blues. Morrison and Geoff Baklarz had singles. Assists went to Garvie, Michael Kellas, Tim Tysoe, game MVP Kevin Deforest and Eaton-Kent.

Deforest, Brent Lane, Eaton-Kent and Tysoe had singles as Acton edged Chedoke

4-3. Baklarz, McPhail and Eaton-Kent had assists.

In the third game, a 5-3 win over Caledon Hills, Baklarz, Kellas, Deforest, Tysoe and Garvie scored with help from Jordan LaRose, Baklarz, Lane (2) and Eaton-Kent.

Singles from Morrison and Deforest, who also had an assist, gave Acton a 2-1 win over Mountain Blues. Preston Becker and William Kirby had assists.

PeeWee Tanners 2-2 at Flamborough

The PeeWee Tanners won two and lost two in the Flamborough Christmas Hockey Tournament. In the first game Acton defeated Cooksville 6-2 led by Matt Freckleton's 4 goals. Also scoring were Jason Beatty and Kurtis McArthur while assists went to Aaron Chiasson (3), Nick Newby (2), Eric Goll, and Mile Kuiper.

The second game saw the Tanners defeat Humberview 4-2 with Freckleton providing a goal and two assists. Arron Chaiasson had a goal and an assist while Brett Manes, and McArthur rounded out the scoring.

The Tanners lost their third game 5-1 to London giving up four power play goals. The Tanner goal was also scored on the power play by Freckleton assisted by Pat Collins and Chiasson.

In the final game, host Flamborough defeated Acton 8-2. Chiasson had a goal and Freckleton scored with assists by Goll and Chiasson.

Minor Atoms win two

John Traversa had a great night with a goal and three assists as the Acton Minor Atom Tanners downed visiting Erin/Hillsburgh 4-1 in recent play. Daniel Kearns, Joshua Ceccotti and Jordan Kemp had singles. Assists went to Jordan Kuenzig, David Moore and Trent Copeland. Darren Pezzack was in net for the win.

Traversa and Ceccotti had singles as Acton edged Erin/Hillsburgh 2-1 in an earlier game. Kuenzig, Kearns and Copeland had assists and Spencer Veness was in net for the hard-fought win.

Major Novices win two

David Gardener had a pair of goals and Tyler McNiven had a single as the Acton Major Novice Tanners downed Elora 3-1 in a Tri-County regular season away game December 22.

Assists went to Alex Brake, Stephen Bennett, Matthew Bentley, Dustin Ballentine and Curtis Marcoux. While their play may have been a bit ragged, Acton never gave up and goalie Evan Lavallee was sharp in net.

Stephen Bennett had a nice hat trick and an assist as Acton thumped Oakville 4-1 in an earlier away game. Gardener had a single and two assists. Tyler McNiven also had an assist.

The team's only recent loss was a 5-0 match with Guelph at home.

Men's soccer team hot

Acton Villa Men's Indoor Soccer Team was on fire this weekend with an 8-1 victory over Burlington City during Sunday's game in Milton's E.C. Drury School.

Top scorer was Colin Lewis with a hat trick, followed by Peter Wright with two and singles from Dave Banks, Paul Nolan and Mike Griffin.

The team competes in the Milton Indoor Soccer League (MISL) and improved their season record to two wins and one loss.
