Major Peewees just miss tourney crown

It took a sudden victory overtime shootout goal by Parkhill to edge the Acton Major Peewee Tanners into second place at a recent New Hamburg hockey tournament.

Goalies Jordan Guindon and Brandon Kernohan were sharp and earned Acton two shutout wins, starting with a 7-0 thumping of host New Hamburg.

Kurtis McArthur had a pair of goals and an assist while Eric Goll, Chad Artem, Matt Freckleton and Jason Beatty notched singles. Assists went to Alex Dube, Daine Kuiken-Rogers, Goll, Artem and Aaron Chiasson.

In game two, Acton blanked a much stronger Kitchener squad 3-0, led by a pair of goals from Freckleton and a single from Chiasson. Dube and McArthur had helpers. Guindon was in net for the win.

Goals from McArthur and Freckleton, with help from Greg Boughton and Chiasson, tied the championship game tied 2-2 at the end of regular time. Acton manager Bruce Chiasson said they had a championship shootout with three players from each team.

"Simultaneously, one player from each team shot on the other goalie and both teams got two of three chances, so it was still tied at the end of the first overtime. We went to a sudden victory shootout and the other team scored and we didn't," Chiasson said, adding the team's hard work has paid off.

In rep league play, the Major Peewees finished the season with a 7-16-5 record. They face Fergus in a best three-of-five OMHA playoff series this weekend.
