

Acton's 1947 Ontario Baseball Association Intermediate baseball club posed right after they won the Ontario championship in the fall of 1947. The team took the title in Delhi after an exciting season in the Halton County Baseball League. Front row, left to right, Norman Morton, Sam Snyder, Jack Waterhouse, Bill Waterhouse. Back row: Fred Dawkins, exec., Bob Footitt, Clayton (Duke) Lindsay, Jack Kentner Jr., Matt Tyler mgr., Jack Royston, president, Peter Chabun, Owen Masales who loaned the photo, Lloyd Robinson, Lorne (Dooney) Evans, Ray Mason, exec., and Johnny Goy.

1900 – 2000

A Century of Champions

Middleweight champions of Canada in 1931, the Beardmore Leathers tug-of-war team from Acton also took the Canadian Manufacturers' Association trophy at the Canadian National exhibition the same year. Front row, left to right: J. Marezak, J. Docko, G. McFadden, J. Dudek, Herb Ritchie, coach. Back row: P. Kuhkij, Andy Molozzi, J. M. (Bud) McDonald, mgr. Beardmore, H. Thompson and Jack Lambert.

Halton County Baseball Champions: This Acton baseball nine captured the coveted championship trophy in the early 1900s. The studio photo has no identities and two of them may have been from Detroit since it wasn't uncommon for early baseball clubs to import a batter, pitcher and catcher, from the Motor City. They would arrive on an early train on Saturday when most games were played, and leave on the early evening train.

Acton's Ontario champion Intermediate 'B' hockey champions of 1938-39 included front row: brother Ezio (Itch) Marzo, Frank Terry, Norm Morton, Frank Holmes, Herb Woods, Bus Morton, George Bayliss, Russ Brush. Second row: Bill Talbot, president, Johnny Brush, Ilio Marzo, George Molozzie, Jack (Doug) Kentner, Vic Rumley, manager, Doug Dawkins, Lorne (Minute) Walters, Frank Gibbons, E. Masters, trainer, G.A. Dills, sports editor, Ed Ryder, arena secretary. In rear, Bill Middleton, secretary, Johnny Robson, equipment manager, Jack Creighton, W.H. Clayton, Hilt Elliott, Bill Coon, Wm. Corry, Wes Beatty, Dr. E.J. Nelson, J. M. (Bud) McDonald, W.K. Graham, treasurer, and Fred McCutcheon, Reeve of Acton.