AHS hosts girls' hockey

Georgetown doubled St. Thomas Aquinas 4-2 for the championship at the Acton High School Girls invitational hockey tournament in Acton on Monday.

Although Acton wasn't able to field a team for Halton Secondary Schools Athletic Association league play, it did stage an exhibition season with call-up players from Stewarttown and Limehouse schools.

Acton's Candace Anderson earned the shut out as Acton blanked E.C. Drury 3-0 in the opening game. Krista Kearns (daughter of former Edmonton Oiler Dan Kearns) had a hat trick. Assists went to Laura Thompson and Kylie Macgillivray.

Georgetown tripled Acton 6-2 in their second game. Sisters Courtney and Kylie Macgillivray had singles with help from Kearns and Anderson.

Kearns and Krystl Egan scored as Acton tied Georgetown 2-2 in Acton's third game of round robin play.

Major Bantams down two

By Jim Monaghan

They say it's not over till the fat lady sings. However, for the Acton Major Bantams, she's starting to warm up her vocal chords as the Tanners lost two close ones this weekend to fall behind 2-0 in their best of three MOHA quarter finals against Midland.

On Saturday afternoon the Tanners fought hard to tie the game 2-2 early in the third period. However, Midland captain Luke Taylor snuck behind the Acton defence with eight minutes to go to score the eventual winner.

Scoring for the bantams were Matt Wolfer from John Field and Peter Glatt and Mike MacDonald from Andrew Pembleton and Steve Atkinson. Goalie Max Schaefer played well in the penalty-filled match.

The Tanners travelled to Midland Sunday to exact revenge but fell short in overtime, 4-3. Wolfer and Glatt each had a goal and an assist while Field chipped in the other marker. AP player Joe Brunelle from the Minor Bantams also had a helper. Mark Finnie was often sensational between the Tanners' pipes. The winner came on a deflection off an Acton player's skate.

"Midland's a good squad but we've been equal and even better than them in these two games," said coach Bryan McPhail in the wake of the weekend match ups. "They've been getting the bounces and we can't bury our chances. We're going to come back and take them one game at a time." The Tanners played last night, Feb. 23 in Acton at 7:30 p.m.
