Cards of Thanks

MORRISON, D. Stanley. The family of the late Stan Morrison wish to thank the relatives, friends and neighbours, especially Ted Hilton, Dr. George McWilliam and staff of the Acton Medical Centre, Gary Barton and staff at Glenlea Pharmacy and Olsten Health Care nurses for their great kindness and ongoing support for Dad during his long illness. Thanks also to Dr. Nigel Phipps and ICU nurses at Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital for their kindness to both Dad and the family during his final days. Thanks also to Bob MacKinnon and his staff, Rev. Peter Van Harten, organist Glenda Benton and Knox Presbyterian Church Ladies Aid for their help with his funeral service. Special thanks too, to New Tanner staff for their compassion and flexibility when Dad's needs interfered with business schedules.

Cards of Thanks

HURREN, Ken. The family of the late Ken Hurren wish to express our sincere appreciation to our relatives, friends and neighbours for their many acts of kindness, phone calls, floral tributes, food donations as expression of sympathy. Special thanks to Rev. Van Harten, Ian Pasmore and staff at Blue Springs Funeral Home and the Acton Legion Ladies' Auxiliary for providing the lunch. Your kindness will always be remembered.

In Memoriam

VAN DER GEER, Frank. In loving memory of my husband, Frank, killed by a drunk driver March 8, 1996. To the world he was just one To this one he was the world. I will love you forever, Leslie.

VAN DER GEER, Frank. In loving memory of Daddy. There is a star in heaven That shines brighter than the rest. We know it is our Daddy's 'Cause our Daddy was the best. Love Jake & Justin.

VAN DER GEER, Frank. In loving memory of Frank who was killed by a drunk driver, March 8th, 1996. He ruined our lives that terrible day, When he killed Frank in such a horrendous way. He scarred two little boys for life And broke the heart of a loving wife. He went to jail for his terrible crime But he didn't serve very much time. Six months later he was home again. Maybe someday we can forgive But in the mean time we have to live without Frank A loving husband, Daddy, Son, Brother and Friend Who is deeply missed by all who knew him. Remembered with love by his mother-in-law, Irene and brother-in-law Derek, family and friends.
