Fill in photo gaps

Jim and Shirley Dills write from Milton to fill the name gaps in the school staff photo of 1952 which appeared in the New Tanner's March 2 issue. In the middle row next to Dena Braida is Jean Kirby. Next to Isabel Anderson is Mrs. Wilkinson. In the first row next to Mrs. Wyman Little is Billie McKay. Jean Kirby is now Jean Julian and lives in Guelph.

Billie McKay married Andy Nicol "and I believe they are in the west." Nancy (Lambert) Wilhelm drew Shirley's attention to the photo and Jim writes he enjoyed seeing The New Tanner. "Wish I could get a subscription 'way down here' in Milton," he writes, "but I manage to catch the odd copy."

Citizen...

Continued from front Later, since he worked in Milton for eight years, he played his intermediate and senior hockey in that town. After he retired from that level, he went to play with the Guelph Musketeers in the Guelph Oldtimers league. "I had to retire at 48 because my legs gave out," he says with a grin.

His personal hockey career was in addition to his volunteer duties as an Acton bantam coach for 17 years. He was also part of Acton's Junior B team management. That team was moved to Junior C and then shifted to Erin. He is still assistant general manager of the Erin Junior C Shamrocks. He coached his sons, Steven and Jeffrey, and volunteered with the figure skating club while his daughters Karen and Julie were taking lessons.

Now he is a life member of the volunteer fire department, the Acton Minor Hockey Association and the Acton Figure Skating Club. Townsley and wife Doris celebrated their 50 wedding anniversary in 1998. They have four children, seven grandchildren and one great grandchild. Townsley will be honoured as the Rotary Club's Acton Citizen of the Year at a dinner at the Royal Canadian Legion Br. 197 later this spring.

Achievers get recognition

Once again Acton High school staff presented certificates to some of the school's special students at an Achievers breakfast at the school. The program, which has been operating for several years, recognizes achievers at the end of each semester. Recipients are not necessarily those who earn top marks in a class, says school counsellor Linda Ellis. They are the ones who did something special from demonstrating leadership in a project to perseverance, to "finally getting their act together." Certificate recipients from the fall semester were Kristina Mitchell, Stephanie McKay, Katie Locke, Ashlyn Timukas, Tanya DeBlaw, Rachel Andrews, Caley French, Meghan Wilson, Ruth Eddolls, Sarah Osborne, Sandy Chapman, Chrissy Pereira, Roy Wigood, Chris Near, Rheanna Leckie, Adam Spinney, Sarah Kobsa, Bob McGinn, Mike Fowler, Krystal Beattie, Becky Chapman, Amy Crocker, Tammy Dickenson, Amy Douglas, Sabrina Fread, Darryll Lawrence, Erin Lewis, Shannon Peart, Emma Webster, Erin Wolter, Crystal Wooldridge, Ben Simpson, Alicia Hebert, Kelsi Break, and J.P.
