It was a day for champions

TYKE
Zachary Payne earned the shutout as Hogarth Printing blanked A&S Engraving 4-0 for the Tyke championship at the house league hockey Day of Champions on Saturday in Acton. Roger Kirkness had a pair of unassisted goals. MVP and most points winner Nicholas Eagan also scored twice, once with help from John White. Rebecca Traversa was named game MVP. A&S goalie Joseph Drexler was named game MVP and also received a most improved Tyke award.

A pair of goals from Matteo Condotta - named game MVP - and singles from Chris Chiasson, Cole Fricker and Brandon Lockyer gave Acton Auto Tech a 5-2 win over Jescan Power in the consolation final. Derek Thomas had a pair of assists and single assists went to Kyle Adema, Gregory Wells, Adam Limina, Jake Lewis and Taylor Buchanan. Jesse Spurrell and game MVP Mitchell Webster scored for Jescan with help from Garrett Kri and Eric Lanteigne.

NOVICE
Most points winner Jacob Presseault had a hat trick and an assist as Legion Branch 197 doubled Best Transfer 4-

2 for the Novice crown. Mark Wells had a single and an assist. Jameson Gallinger and Tyler Hemming had assists. Matthew Sutherland -
