LEGION NEWS BRANCH No. 197

By Joyce Buchanan Branch Secretary
Last night, after the ladies served us a great roast beef dinner, the elections were held. Here are the results. Your resident is Gord McCutcheon, 1st vice Carl Risher, 2nd vice Doug Williams and secretary Joyce Buchanan. Obviously the treasurer's position was not filled. We only had 60 voting members turn out.
We need five Executive Committee members but were only able to find three, John Dunn, Kerwin McPhail and Jim Thornhill. We will try to recruit two more. Congratulations to all who joined the Executive. I look forward to working with each of you.

I can't complain about the weather but wasn't Monday night a blast. It pretty near shook me out of my bed. But it brought a nice fresh morning.
Sympathies go to Hugh O'Rourke and family at the passing of his mother. To all who are ill, a speedy recovery, now the good weather is here.
Don't forget bridge and euchre at the Branch. Also come on down for the Saturday Meat Draw.
See you at the Branch.

Pulley causes quarry fire

Acton firefighters extinguished a fire in a tunnel at Blue Circle Aggregates, south of Acton, at 9:55 last Thursday morning. Fire officials report a conveyor belt system was overloaded with stone and the motor pulleys started to spin on the belts. The belt stopped and over-heated until it ignited, filling the tunnel with smoke, which was ventilated by fire fighters. Damage is estimated at $5,000.
