McIntyres community champs

The kindness, compassion and generosity of Acton's Betty and Cal McIntyre have not gone unnoticed. The McIntyre's, who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary, are this month's recipients of the Community Champion award.

"About a year ago we heard about an anniversary party where everybody brought food for the food bank, so we decided to do it for our party last month," explained Cal McIntyre.

Instead of gifts, friends and family who helped the McIntyres celebrate their Golden Anniversary, donated over 800 pounds of food and $112 cash to Acton FoodShare that serves, on average, 60 families a month.

The Community Champion award is designed to draw attention to those who make Acton a nicer place to live, to reward random acts of kindness, and to publicly thank those selfless people who set a good example.

If you know someone who sits the bill, you can leave your name and phone number and the name of the suggested honouree at the Acton BIA mailbox, located in front of the Mill Street police station or at The New Tanner.

MADD, Police cooperate in RIDE

The Victoria Day weekend is the first holiday weekend of the summer, and is typically associated with cottage openings, boating and the onset of summer. It is a time that is also associated with drinking and consequently dangerous holiday period for alcohol related deaths, Halton Police point out.

Keeping this in mind, the Halton Chapter of Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) and Halton regional Police Service are working together to ensure the roads in Halton Region are safe for everyone to enjoy over the May holiday weekend. The Halton Regional Police Service will be conducting RIDE programs throughout the Region this weekend from May 19 to 22.

"We want the streets of Halton to be safe and free from the threat of impaired drivers," explained Stephanie Dooley, MADD Chapter President.

In keeping with the message from MADD, Halton, the Halton Police will be conducting RIDE spot checks to ensure that the Victoria Weekend is remembered as a time of celebration, not tragedy.
