

MILLENNIUM MUSCLE: Acton High School students and staff put a concerted effort into cleaning up and planting in their millennium garden at the school. Taking a break are, front, from left: Mark Chumley, Rita Matton, Greg MacPherson (principal) and Ryan McGonigle. Back: Beverly Campbell, Becky Chapman, Eric Lewis and Kate Hendry. - Frances Niblock photo

JUBILEE 2000: Members of St. Joseph's Knights of Columbus are busy getting new flowerbeds ready for planting. They will also install a shrine, a time capsule and a new driveway. Seen above from the left are Gary DeBrun, Ray Kerins, Kevin Krasnay, and Ray Kiernan - Maggie Petrushevsky

SILVER AWARD WINNER: Acton High School student Matt Cosulich shows off the Silver medal winning wall shelf he made during the Halton Skills Olympics last week. The shelf, once it was stained, was a Mother's Day present for his mom. - Frances Niblock photo

SPRING FLING: There will be great deals, fun, games, a tea room and a silent auction and much, much more as Robert Little School holds its Spring Fling on June 1. School council chair Julia Roehrig (left) principal Don Warren, parent group chair Heather Morris Stokes and Grade 4 student Jacob Loewen sit in front of the display case holding many of the donated items that will be auctioned. Frances Niblock photo

SMOOTH MOVE: Jennifer Berry, 12, demonstrates a self-defence technique on Connor Carr, 11, under the supervision of instructor d.r. MacGreggor during an anniversary open house at Classic Karate. - Maggie Petrushevsky photo

WE WANT IT?: Samantha Benacquista, 3, and Melissa Hlinak, 3, interrupt their play with a doll house for the photographer at the Parent-Tot garage sale last weekend. The girls both thought Mom should buy the house for them. - Maggie Petrushevsky photo

HOMEMADE GOODIES: Members of Lakeside Chapter IODE baked up a storm last week and held their annual baking sale at Sweet Dreams on Friday. Waiting for their first customers are from the left Lise Graham, Rosalee Dawkins, and Ernestine Foster. - Maggie Petrushevsky photo

PROUD PRESENTATION: Students at Robert Little School raised an astounding $11,538 during their recent jump rope for heart fund raiser for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Presenting the award to Foundation rep Michelle Harbourne are proud Robert Little principal Don Warren (right) and event organizer, teacher Ron VandeKemp. - Frances Niblock photo

PLAYGROUND EXTRAS: Parents and teachers painted frames for games like hopscotch on the tarmac behind McKenzie-Smith Bennett School last weekend. Above Halton District School Board trustee Ethel Gardiner, left, and Michelle Mattocks wield paint rollers. - Maggie Petrushevsky photo