ACE ATHLETE: With his proud family in the council chambers, Acton's John Eddolls (centre) received a municipal award from Halton Hills Mayor Marilyn Serjeantson and Councillor Bob Inglis at a Civic centre ceremony on Monday. Eddolls was honoured as a member of the National Life Saving team that recently competed at the world championships in Australia.

GUIDE ADVANCEMENTS: With symbolic keys, Sparks, Brownies and Guides advanced to the next level in the Acton Guiding movement during a ceremony recently at Robert Little School. Spark Ashley Tennier, 7, unlocked the door to move up to Brownies (far left photo). Emma Jolly, 9, of Ballinafad accepted her key from Guider Ruth Becker to advance to Guides (centre) and Guide Jasmine Hess is welcomed to Pathfinders by Kim Freeland.

GARAGE SALE GOODIES: Catholic Women's League members Jennifer Dawkins (left) and Cathy Coles offer a homemade snack to Father Bob Bulbrook during the St. Joseph's Church garage sale on Saturday.

WHAT A DEAL: There were great deals, huge crowds and some truly weird stuff as neighbours Joyce Veness (left) and Dawn Vickery held a joint garage sale on Churchill Road on Saturday.
