Angus has been found

To the Editor,

Please accept our sincerest heart-felt gratitude and appreciation to everyone who helped us in our search for our beloved cat - Angus.

A special thank you to Sue from Lakeview Convenience on Main St. N., who ultimately helped us find our boy.

Thank you to Halton's finest who helped us look in the wee hours of the morning, to the ambulance personnel who carried his picture.

... to the wonderful people at ABT Vinyl who were on constant look out and even made their own flyers.

... to Tammy and Daniell G. two little angels who rode their bikes, searching.

... to Deb, your support and your thankless work in looking after and feeding the many strays in Acton should not go unnoticed.

Thank you Maggie of the New Tanner for the wonderful story you wrote about Angus.

Acton Vet Clinic, Drs. Hess and Ostrander, Tara and Shelly, you are all special. Paul and I cannot thank you all enough.

Mrs. Moore, Blanche,

Betty, Julie from the pet store, thank you.

Michelle, Daniel, Joyce and Gord who all walked the streets calling for Angus, thank you.

All the people who allowed us to put flyers in your windows, thank you.

All the people who allowed us in your back yards, sheds, garages and even under your decks, thank you.

Sam and Phyliss from Acton Town Milk, your unconditional support and free photocopies in the first hours of Angus going missing on August 1 will never be forgotten.

... to all the kids who hand out on the street corners of Acton ... thank you for being so kind and helpful.

... to all of you who phoned out home with words

Wrong name in cut line

of hope, kindness and reassurance, and to those of you who called about signings of black and white cats - a special thank you.

Angus is a little worse for wear, four pounds lighter and extremely happy to be home. He send to all of you his sincerest appreciation for helping to bring him home to his family.
