

The Rockwood MILLER

Another full monty seen in Rockwood Conservation Park

He's back!

That naked male who keeps popping up for visits at the Rockwood Conservation Area was back again Friday. Three young girls told police about an encounter with him around 3:45 p.m. when he appeared on a trail - totally naked as usual - fondling his private parts. He is described as early 50s, overweight, balding and sporting lots of body hair. Police believe this is the same male who has been making similar visits to the area for, for four or five years.

Cylinder thrown

An Indian Trail resident found a burnt out propane torch on his driveway Tuesday morning. The cylinder, which landed about five feet from the house, caused some minor damage to the driveway. It is believed the cylinder was thrown from a passing vehicle.

Driver injured

A 38-year-old Oakville man had to be extricated after losing control and rolling his pickup truck on Wellington County Road 50 in Eramosa

Township around 5:30 p.m. on Aug. 30. The man was taken to Guelph General Hospital with minor head injuries. Alcohol is believed to have been a factor in the accident.

EWAG NEWS

It's been a quiet summer at EWAG (East Wellington Advisory Group) Community Services and we are looking forward to a more active fall season. We have returned to our regular hours. We will be open Tuesdays through Fridays from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. and from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturdays. We are also looking for some new volunteers to assist in the thrift shop and with other activities.

In the Happy Returns thrift shop we have brought out the fall and winter clothing, so stop by for some economical back-to-school shopping!

Many of our programs which have been on hiatus for the summer months will be starting up again in September. Diners Club will start on Tuesday, September 12 at noon. Euchre will begin on September 14 at the EWAG store/office. Bingo will start the following week.

EWAG is also presenting a new Tai Chi program at the Rockwood Library. The classes will begin on September 7 and run every Thursday from 10 to 11:30 a.m. until Nov. 9. The cost is $45. for seniors and $50 for non-seniors.

We are expecting a new job opening at the EWAG office. Activities will centre around transferring the Erin Information Centre data base to the Rockwood computer, and training the staff person and volunteers to use this. We also hope to publish a new information directory for the Rockwood area. If you are receiving or have recently received EI you are eligible to apply. Please call Lynn at the EWAG office for details.

The EWAG offices and Happy Returns thrift shop are located at 126 Main Street South in Rockwood. Our phone number is 856-21134. Our office/store hours are 10 - 4 Tuesdays to Fridays and 10 - 2 on Saturdays. Our Food Bank operates on Wednesdays by appointment.

Work has started on the new $250,000 addition to historic St. John's Anglican Church.

New staff and school for Upper Grand Board

By FRANCES NIBLOCK
The Rockwood Miller

There were few hitches as approximately 35,000 public school students headed back to class with the Upper Grand District School Board on Tuesday.

Students in the Village of Erin, and the Townships of Erin, Eramosa and Puslinch make up approximately 10 per cent of the entire student population.

Rockwood Centennial Public School

-projected enrollment 520
A retirement, two leaves and a transfer to the Upper Grand District School Board office means there are some new faces at Rockwood Centennial School, a K-to-8 facility.

Principal Deb Steplock welcomes:
Pat Burgess, a Grade

3 maternity leave replacement

Johanna Iles, also a leave replacement, will do planning time and rotation

Rebecca Pike, planning time and resource

Scott Caverly, at Rockwood for half of last year, will teach Grade 8

Eramosa Public School

-projected enrollment 160

New principal Jeff Crawford, who transferred from Erin Public School, taught at Eramosa for two years in the early '90s and is looking forward to a new perspective on the school. All but a handful of students are bussed to the school

New staff include:

Darlene Shaw -

Grades 3 and 4

Joanne Hunse - junior core French

Erin District High School

-projected enrollment -

575

Erin has a brand new high school, attached to the arena and community centre. For the first time, it no longer has any Grade 8 students who now attend Erin Public School that moved to the former high school building.

Principal Blake Stormes welcomes:

Jeff Mahood - Grades 9 to OAC math

Alana Rusu - math

Theresa Katerburg - French

Dan Hawkins - communications technology

Brett Gavin - music and English

Limehouse, Brookville add staff

The new school year got off to a smooth start for Acton area children attending both Limehouse and Brookville schools, rural schools that both that welcomed new staff on Tuesday.

Limehouse Public School - projected enrollment 195

Limehouse, which is twinned with Stewarttown Public School, has a new principal, Odette Bartnicki, who replaces Peter Vidler of Acton, who retired.

Limehouse vice-principal Bob O'Driscoll said he's looking forward to working with a co-operative community to provide the best education they can for the students. New staff include:

Darlene O'Driscoll, a new librarian who transferred from Glen Williams.

Brookville Public School - projected enrollment 439

Brookville principal Rick Nodwell welcomes new vice-principal, Gail Lennsen, who transferred from an Oakville school. Other new staff includes:

Wendy Weber, part-time librarian

Ivanna Domenech - a new teacher who will handle core French for Grades 6, 7 and 8

Jill Burton - will teach Grade 7 and 8 language arts

Tracey Wherately

Other changes at Brookville this year include a new front entrance to the school, including handicapped access, a new water cistern and new fencing around the primary school playground.
