Acton's Minor Bantam Tanners completed an inspired day of hockey by defeating Windsor 2-1 Sunday evening to become champions of the St. Thomas Minor Hockey weekend tournament.

Kurtis McArthur's goal was the winner, Mark Boycott also scored, and strong defence and outstanding team effort sealed the win. Earlier Sunday, Acton defeated a strong Aylmer team 4-0, anchored by Brett Hirtle in goal, and narrowly advanced to the final by winning all three periods.

Tired and flat after a late league game Thursday and the long trip, Acton opened Friday with a 4-0 loss to Windsor, but played better than the score showed. Saturday morning a refreshed squad bounced host St. Thomas 6-2. The team score sheet showed Pat Collins with two goals, singles from Mark Boycott, Aaron Chiasson (one goal, two assists) Matt Bronizewski, Kurtis McArthur (one goal, one assist) and Mike Kuiper and Jonathan Tysoe (two assists each).

In league play the team remained undefeated in three games, but surrendered a three goal lead, including the tying goal with 30 seconds on the clock to tie 3-3 Thursday night in Milton. At home Tuesday, Acton defeated Flamborough 5-1. Down 2-1, Flamborough seemed to concede defeat and dropped any pretense at hockey; the game was marred by a vicious hit from behind on Acton defenceman Mike Kuiper. Although play indicated an incident was imminent, the referee missed the chance to send the offender out earlier, despite every justification.

Matt Bronizewski continued a fine scoring week with three goals, five point. Kurtis McArthur contributed two goals, Aaron Chiasson and Pat Collins (one goal, one assists each), Jason Beattie (one goal), Alex Dube, Mike Kuiper and Chad Artem (one assist each) completed the offence.

The Tanners finish their week in Georgetown this Saturday night.

Minor Novices win two

Acton Minor Novice Tanners opened their regular season with an 8-2 win in Hespler. Bradley Kri scored five goals, Billy Burgan had a pair and a single was netted by Joshua McDonell. Assists went to Ellis Lavallee, Billy Burgan, Garret Kri (2), Rebecca Traversa (2) and Steven Wolstenholme.

 Tanner's Minor Novice squad has an excellent game in a 10-2 win against Erin Hillsburgh in their home opener.

Bradley Kri had another strong game with seven goals and singles went to Billy Burgan, Garrett Kri and Jesse Spurrell. Rebecca Traversa and Steven Wolstenholme each had a pair of assists and singles went to Bradley Kri, Ellis Lavallee, Joshua McDonell, and Jesse Spurrell. Ben Hess and Joseph Drexler shared the goaltending job.

IT'S MINE: Len Christopher points to the Mazda truck he planned to win at the Tanners' hockey fundraising golf tournament at Acton Meadows recently. The truck was donated by Achilles Mazda and Galvcast Manufacturing. Unfortunately, no one managed to score that all important hole-in-one so the truck went unclaimed. - Maggie Petrushevsky photo

The Acton Tanners Minor Hockey Association Golf Committee would like to take this opportunity to thank the many supporters of our 5th Annual Fundraising Golf Classic held September 23rd at Acton Meadows. Through sponsorship, the business community and dedicated hockey families, we were able to raise $7,000.

A special thank you to Galvcast Manufacturing and Achilles Motors for their generous contribution to our Hole-in-One Contest. Also, thank you to all the businesses that donated prizes to this worthwhile event.
