One quarter Acton grads earn Honours

By FRANCES NIBLOCK
The New Tanner

Almost one-quarter of this year's graduating class at Acton High School is graduating with honours—marks above 80 per cent.

Fifteen of the 92 grads have been named Ontario

Scholars by the province, signifying they achieved marks of at least 80 per cent in six OAC courses, and seven students are Ontario Secondary School Diploma honour graduates.

"It's great to see so many students graduating with honours. Twenty-two students graduating with honours is a good number in a small graduating group," said Acton vice-principal Caroline Conn-Smith on Friday, adding most of the honours students have at least one characteristic in common.

"I would have to say, that for the majority, they would be kids that are very well-rounded children, involved in many areas of the school. Academics are not their only strength," Conn-Smith said, adding "they, and all of the graduates, are our future."

The honours graduates are among those who will receive awards at the Acton

High School Commencement tomorrow (Friday).

Ontario Scholars: Adam Ahearn, Rebecca Austin, Darya Barbir, Maya Barbir, Sandy Chapman, Christina Cooper, Marianne Craig, Nicola Garwood, James Mashinter, Graham McClure, Stephanie McKay, Tracy McLaughlin, Vanessa Poltrock, Jennifer Schultz, Jennifer Vanderstarren.

McLaughlin, Vanessa Poltrock, Jennifer Schultz and Jennifer Vanderstarren.

Open plan living

An open living plan, with an expansive great room and more than 1,200 sq ft of floor space, gives this straight-entry home plenty of modern-day appeal. The plan includes an unfinished basement for future expansion, and is sure to be particularly appealing to first-time buyers.

Inside the entrance a planter ledge and a display stand add an interesting feature to the foyer.

The main living area, within the great room includes a freestanding work island, offering additional meal-preparation space and also a raised bar for casual snacks and quick coffees.

The dining area has an option for an inverted buffet stand. A door provides access to the covered portion of the sun deck.

The spacious living/family area has a corner fireplace giving the room a cosy feel during the colder months.

The master bedroom has a window seat that adds character to the room and provides a cosy space to enjoy a relaxing read. A walk-in closet and three-piece en suite bathroom complete the suite.

Bedroom No. 3 has an attractive bay window and is designed with a built-in desk for an easy conversion to home-office or den.

There is plenty of storage space throughout the house and a double garage has a side door as well as entrance to the home through the laundry room.

A 10-foot-high covered entrance, horizontal siding and brick accents grace the exterior of the house, which is 38 feet, 8 inches wide and 52 feet, 4 inches deep with 1,278 square feet of living space.

Plans for design H1-3-555 are available for $341 (set of 5), $407 (set of 8), and $49 for a super set of 10. Please add $25.00 for Priority courier charge. Also add 7% GST to both the plan price and postage charges.
