

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row by row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow
Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields. Take up our quarrel with the foe: To you, next spring, we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though growth
In Flanders fields
