Acton Midget Tanners chalk up wins over Orangeville, Fergus

By Jim Monaghan

The Acton Tanners kept chugging along last week by winning two more games to run their season record to 11-2. This week's victims were Orangeville who got crushed 8-4 and Fergus who were hammered 10-1.

On Wednesday at home, the Tanners started slowly out of the gates but eventually buried a snowman's worth of chances to beat Orangeville.

Mike MacDonald, Matt Wolfer and Andrew Pembleton each had a goal and an assist. Single markers went to Steve Barens, Simon Drexler, Darren Selihar while Jason Bonus converted a pair. Other helpers came from Adam Brouillard, Ryan Weatherall and Tyler Chapman.

In Fergus on Saturday, despite only having 10 skaters, Acton outthustled and outscored Fergus 10-1. It was a hat trick performance by speedy centre Weatherall, while Thompson, Selihar and Field pulled the trigger on a pair each. Wolfer's first period goal opened up the floodgates for the Tanners.

Their next game is Saturday, Nov. 25 against the always tough Brampton squad on their home turf.

Minor Pee Wees win, lose, tie

After a slight hiccup, the Heartland Shipping Supplies' Minor Pee wee Tanners are back on track.

First place Caledon served the boys a back-to-back beating, but the well-coached team returned with a decisive 10-2 win over Milton Winterhawks. Michael Bentley led with four goals, Darcy Gordon and Patrick Glatt each scored two and Shawn Harkley and Greg Henry added singles. Brad Ethier played a strong game, counting for three assists.

On Saturday, Nov. 18, the team almost made a comeback but time ran out and the game resulted in a 6-3 loss to Caledon. Assistant Coach George Artem, feels the boys can beat this first place team with a more positive attitude and fine-tuning. Harkley and Ethier each counted two points (one goal, one assist each). The third goal was scored by Zachary Curcija.

A somewhat uninspired Tanners settled for a 3-3 tie in Fergus the following night. Artem scored one goal and added an assist, as did Daniel Woolford. Michael Bentley added the third goal, which was set up by Kyle Fellows.

The boys look forward to playing in the Friendship Tournament this weekend in Cambridge.
