Acton Major Pee Wee Tanners wound up consolation champions at a tournament in Ingersoll the weekend of Nov. 18-19 despite losing the first game to Oro by 3-1.

The Tanners rebounded against Riverside Rangers, winning 6-1 in the second game. Tied 1-1 going into the second period Acton scored four goals and notched another in the third for the winning margin.

Game three was the consolation final against Dorchester and the Tanners rolled to a 7-3 victory, breaking a first period deadlock with four second period goals and adding a pair in the third.

Tyler Holmes got the lone Acton goal in the first game assisted by Ches Zaborowski and Neil Armstrong in a well matched game. Acton pulled their goalie in the third behind 2-1 and Oro banged in an insurance marker on the final buzzer.

Minor Bantam Tanners top Caledon by 5-2

By Chuck Tysoe

The Minor Bantam Tanners had their hands full with the much-improved Caledon Hawks Sunday night at Teen Ranch, but managed a 5-2 victory as Jordan Guindon in goal kept the Hawks at bay until the Tanners found the range. The Hawks had many chances but no luck until two quick late goals. Kurtis McArthur had another solid night with two goals and set up Mark Boycott for an excellent breakaway score. Versatile Greg Boughton and hard-working Jason Beatty also scored. The win was the boys' ninth consecutive November victory by an aggregate 41-18 score.

Last Thursday night the Tanners came from behind three time, winning 5-3 in Ancaster. Jon Tysoe stole the puck for the short-handed tying goal; Kurtis McArthur got the game winner on a clever play by Matt Bronizewski; Mike Kuiper hit the empty net from an astounding 140 feet.

Tuesday the Tanners handled Milton 5-1 at home on goals from Boycott, Bronizewski, Pat Collins, Aaron Chiasson and Tysoe's winner on excellent pinching work by Eric Goll.

Saturday's (Nov. 18) game was a 7-3 home drubbing of Ancaster, on Chiasson's five points, Bronizewski's three goals, two from McArthur and a goal and three points from Beatty.

Wednesday (Nov. 15) in Elora Collins and Boycott (whose first of two was the winner) shot the lights out early, potting terrific wrist shots. Bronizewski scored and combined with Tysoe to set up Beatty for another with nine seconds left.

On the ensuing faceoff, for the second successive night, the Acton centre (Tysoe, and previously Chiasson, against Guelph with one second left) was viciously charged by a defenceman placed on the wing for the purpose. Tysoe, who looks shorter than Gazoo on faceoffs, was sent back to the sixties with a blow to the head.

When the OMHA finishes, congratulating themselves for sending Marty McSorley to the NHL, they might look into how some of the teenagers they card are being taught to play.

Midget Tanners, Brampton deadlock at 7-7 Saturday

By Jim Monaghan

It was a good news/bad news type of week for the Acton Midget Tanners. The good was that they ran their unbeaten streak to nine games. The bad was that they surrendered two late third period goals and allowed Brampton to escape with a 7-7 tie on Saturday night in their only game last week.

The Midgets are now 11 wins, two losses and one time on the season.

It was a game of changing momentum as each team scored in bunches to take the lead at one point. Acton jumped out to a 4-2 lead midway through the second on the backs of goals from Jeff Payne, Jason Bonus and a pair from Steve Barends. However, before the period ended Brampton answered with three consecutive markers to go into the dressing rooms after two periods leading 5-4.

However, Acton came out strong early in the third and countered with three quickies from Adam Brouillard, Matt Wolfer and Barends, who completed his hat trick. But Brampton ended up potting a pair in the last four minutes to provide the sister kisser.
