Over 300 Seniors enjoy annual Christmas dinner by Rotary, Legion

Over 300 Seniors from Acton and district enjoyed the popular annual Christmas dinner and entertainment provided by Acton branch of the Royal Canadian Legion and Acton Rotary Club on Tuesday, Nov. 28.

Acton Citizens' Band and Guelph's Royal City Ambassadors provided an evening of Christmas and light entertainment. The band played a medley of Christmas carols and appropriate music during dinner served by Rotarians and Legion members. The Royal City Ambassadors barbershoppers who include members from Acton and several neighbouring towns, delighted the capacity crowd at the Legion hall with some old chestnuts, Christmas carols and barbershop quartets. Chefs for the evening, Legion members under the supervision of Kerwin McPhail, made a brief appearance to acknowledge the appreciation of the Seniors. Master of ceremonies for the evening was Bob Andrews.

Santa Claus made an appearance and chatted or shook hands with almost everyone in the hall.

Tickets for the annual dinner are only $2 and proceeds go towards the Acton Christmas Assistance Program which provides hampers for those in need. The money was accepted by Captain Lyndon Hale of the Salvation Army on behalf of the Rotary Club, St. Vincent de Paul Society and Lakeside Chapter of the IODE as well as the Salvation Army.

Seniors present were provided with a gift of boxed cookies courtesy of Bill Beaton of the Rotarians.

SENIORS' REC. CTR.

By Dot Redekop

First of all, the Acton Seniors Centre would like to thank the Acton Legion and Rotary Club for the lovely dinner and great entertainment. You sure have good cooks. We look forward to the dinner each year. Once again, thanks.

Don't forget our own Christmas Dinner on Friday, Dec. 8 at 12 o'clock.

Our bazaar was a great success. The tea table prize was won by Irene Breen, 50/50 draw by Isabel McDonald. The raffle - first, afghan and pillow - Anna Eikemon; second, casserole covers and mitts - Lois Walker; third, doll - Kay Hart; fourth, table - Lorna Brooks. Money Tree - Claude Couture. Food Basket - Flo Rocher, Barb Gagnon, Helen Dubeau.

The bazaar committee would like to thank everyone who donated, worked and came to support our very successful bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 25.

A total of 48 people attended the fish and chip dinner on Nov. 22. Bette Footitt, Bill Thompson, Mary Walsma and Yvonne Hamilton won door prizes.

The 50/50 draw was won by Tom Walker.

We are closed for holidays from Monday, Dec. 25 to Friday, Dec. 29
