Membership awards presented at Legion Ladies' appreciation dinner

The Acton Legion Ladies' Auxiliary's annual appreciation night was held on Saturday night, January 20.

Following the dinner, prepared and served by the Legion men, many of the Ladies' auxiliary members were presented with awards for their many years of volunteer service.

Three women who have a combined membership of over 105 years with the auxiliary were awarded pins. Anne Drysdale received her 15-year pin and Helen Fowler was presented her 40-year pin.

Longtime auxiliary volunteer, Lucy Synott, received her 50-year pin. Many members of the auxiliary now have members who are daughters of original members. Synott was presented with her award from her daughter, now President of the auxiliary, Helen Van Opstal.

Other members who received awards and certificates for their hard work were: Delores Jordan, May Hoare, Helen Van Opstal, Peggy Harris, Betty Green, Annamarie Lowin, Delia Kentner, Celine Clarke, Pat Robinson, Gail Gibson, Beverly Boisvenue, Teresa Uiterwyk, and Betty Cole.

In an unusual turn, the Ladies' Auxiliary also awarded a Legion men's member a certificate of appreciation. The ladies thanked Peter Turkosz for his time and the many tasks he has helped the auxiliary with over the many years.
