EWAG NEWS

Pop into the "Happy Returns" thrift store at EWAG Community Services for a fabulous deal this month. For the entire month of February, we have a Stuff-It Sale on. Stuff an entire bag for only $6.00!!! Things not included are new hand-knitted items.

EWAG would like to invite caregivers and their children to participate in "Ready, Set, Grow." This is a theme-oriented, pre-school program for children 2-5 years and their caregivers. "Ready, Set, Grow" will be held every Wednesday at Rockmosa Community Centre starting February 21 and runs until March 28. For more information or to register please call Janice at EWAG in Erin at 853-9696. There is limited space so please register today to avoid disappointment.

Anyone interested in joining our Book Club is welcome to come to the Rockwood library the second Tuesday of every month at 10 a.m. If you love to read, come to contribute your thoughts and opinions on our current book under discussion.

Attention all you perennial plant lovers! If you are willing to donate a bit of your time between now and the second week of May, we would love to have you help us with our first annual Perennial Plant Sale here in Rockwood. All proceeds from the sale will benefit our programs in the community.

The Rockwood EWAG office is located at 126 Main St. S. If you would like information on any of the above programs, please call Lynn at 856-2113.

POLICE BEAT

Theft of Hoist

A $3,900 electric hoist and trolley system was stolen from a pumping station in Rockwood on Feb. 7. Thieves cut a hole in the chain link fence at the Valley Road station and removed a yellow hoist and trolley that weighed over 200 lbs. The property was owned by Guelph-Eramosa Twp.

Trio confronted

A resident of County Road 124 (Hwy. 24) in Erin Twp. arrived home Feb. 10 at 3:20 p.m. to find a Ford Ranger pick-up truck with three occupants, sitting in the driveway. One of the suspects told him they were stuck and needed a tow truck but upon closer examination, the homeowner realized they were lying.

The suspects said they were lost and looking for Ospringe. A licence plate number taken showed the truck was stolen from Egremont St., Mt Forest, on Feb. 4, where the thieves stole the pick-up from a locked garage plus $9,000 in property.

They only description of the suspects is two young males with short hair and one female. Nothing was reported stolen from the home.

Major Novices score convincing 5-1 victory

By KAREN MCCARTHY

The Major Novices hosted Dundas on Saturday, February 10 and came up with a 5-1 win. This gives them three wins and one loss so far in the Tri-County playoffs.

Jessy Keunzig had four goals and Brandyn McCarthy had a single. Assists went to Keunzig, McCarthy, Colton Burgan, and Taylor McNabb (2).

The Majors start the OMHA playoffs on Wednesday, February 14, in Acton against Erin/Hillsburgh.

Minor Novices now 4-1 in Tri-County playoffs

Acton Minor Novices are now 4-1 in Tri-County playoffs. They hosted Caledon on Feb. 10 and skated to a 3-2 win.

Bradley Kri had two goals, including the game winner, and set up Billy Burgan on a great play to tie the game.

Acton starts the OMHA semi-finals at home on Feb. 17 against Elora.

Fergus edges Tanners 2-1 in Minor Atom

By DIANNE MELLON

Fergus Highlanders edged Acton Minor Atom Tanners 2-1 on Tues., Feb. 6 to win the third game of the OMHA playoff series.

Fergus opened the scoring in a closely played first period, but the Tanners came back to tie the score 1-1 on a goal by Michael McKeon assisted by Alexander Brake and David Gardner.

The Highlanders made the score 2-1 late in the second period and hung on for the win during a third period which saw many end-to-end rushes. Despite the loss, the Tanners played well against the very strong Fergus team.
