DAUGHTER & DAD: Acton's Bruce Davitt and his daughter Betsy, 11, were out for a spin last Thursday as they get reacquainted after Davitt won a cross-border tug-of-war with his ex-wife for custody of their daughter, who was ordered to returned to Canada by a U.S. court. - Frances Niblock photo

tion within the context of love freely given by the triune God of grace.

Soderholm doesn't write gospel music in the traditional sense as much as he pens songs from a Christian worldview, which he hopes will move people and provoke them to think about the human condition, and respond to the One who has given them life. His music is warm and soul satisfying, and imminently suitable for family listening.

Tickets are $15 for adults, $8 for children. They are available at the door or call Deb Quail in Rockwood at 519-856-2386 to reserve. Refreshments are provided by the Rockwood UCW.

Rockwood United is located at the corner of Hwy. 7 and Harris Street (County Road 50).

"Home of the Week" ~ Your Building Experts Traditional-style family home countertops, a work island and a pantry to add to the storage space. The breakfast nook sits between the kitchen and the sunken family room, which together make one large area for meals and all day-to-day informal activities. A corner fireplace in the family room provides a cosy focus for winter months and sliding glass doors open to a patio to enjoy outdoor meals or a barbecue during the summer. Space has been allowed in the laundry room to accommodate a small freezer and additional storage is available in the coat cupboard. Sloping ceilings and a dormer window distinguish the master bedroom, which has a large walk-in closet and an en suite bathroom with a sunken tub surrounded by bay windows. Bedrooms two and three share a full bathroom and a linen cupboard is conveniently placed in the hall. Additional storage space off the third bedroom is just the place to store the family's recreational equipment. The house is 60 feet wide and 34 feet, 9 inches deep with 1,850 square feet of living space.
