Soccer seasons wrap up with fun days

By Judith Kirkness

The Acton Under 7 soccer season wrapped up with a fun day on Saturday and the last games on Monday.

Tee-Mac Electric was the over-all winner of the games and skills competition on Saturday. Congratulations, Tee-Mac!

Acton Home Hardware was the top team during the season, finishing with a record of nine wins and no losses. Holland Shop and Tuitman's Garden Centre tied for second with eight wins and one loss.

Individual awards were presented for achievements on fun day, and throughout the year.

Eric Victoria was presented with a medal for being the top scorer during the season. He scored 17 goals in the first game of the season, and led for the entire year.

Each team MVP was presented with a MVP hat. The winners from the square dance on Saturday were presented with a variety of prizes.

Goal Scoring Leaders

Eric Victoria (66), Jesse McFadden (54), Walter Kirkness (36), Kimberly Becker (34), Mitchell Brake (34), Jennifer Doraty (31), Jonathon Van Oosten (31), Justin Corbett (31), Brandon Boehringer (28), Tim Thompson (26).

The top three competitors in the ball distance throw were recognized with awards. The winners were Brandon Boehringer, Laura Mick, Mitchell Brake.

The final games of the season were played on August 27, as exhibition games. Angus Agnew scored his first goal of the season for Leathertown Lumber. Thomas Butler and Jessika Costa played well for Acton Auto Tech. Claire Marier had a strong game for Blue Springs Flower Shop, as did Peter Moddle, who scored a goal last week that was overlooked in the game account. Meg Allen played strongly for Town and Country Window Cleaning, Shelley Kemp Graham played well all season.

Shannon Taylor and Jessie Rentz lead Holland Shop to a decisive victory. Cora Payne gave a solid effort on defence for Acton Home Hardware, she was hard working and consistent throughout the season. A number of players contributed for Peter Zions Construction. Cassandra Minicuci supplied excellent blocking, Jessica Bartels and Mitchell Griffiths kicked and passed well. Phillippe Roy and Graham Davison played strong defence. MVP Gage Cartwright played well for

UNDER 5

The Under 5 soccer program also held their final fun day on Saturday. The kids enjoyed fun skills exercises and mini games with three children per side. The morning wrapped up with pizza from Godfather's - one of the Under 5 team sponsors. The teams enjoyed receiving medals and sticker packs for their hard work this season.

We wish to thank the following local business for sponsoring the Under 5 teams: Acton Subway, Halton Hills Furniture and Appliances, Power Video, Royal Jug City, Time Out Sports, Godfather's Pizza, Mac's Milk and A&S Engraving and Trophies.

Soccer Report

Ben Hess nailed down a two goal lead with an opportune goal. Alex Wenzel and Greg Wells also potted a goal each for the winners.

Grand Valley 2 Royal City 1

It was another close game for Acton Royal City Realty but lady luck, that fickle maiden, looked the other way when she was needed. Grand Valley took the lead on Jonathon Gazo's long awkward bouncing shot. Consistent pressure from Royal City paid off late in the first half when Jeff Becker slotted home Colin Adema's pass to tie it. Dakota Scratchter put the game away for home town Valley boys in the second half, assisted by a deflection. First-rate goalkeeping by Jesse Weaver and Stephen VanHelden highlighted Royal City's effort as well as good effort from Patrick Conway, Jeff Becker, Ian Otten and Rory Caldwell.

Under 13 Girls Hillsburgh/Erin 3 Acton Vet Clinic 1

In their last regular season game Acton Veterinary Clinic worked hard but lost a tough 3-1 game in girls' under 13 soccer at the Elizabeth Drive field. Great hustle by Rebecca MacPherson and Laurie Cole gave the Vets several good scoring chances with Laurie scoring Acton's lone goal. Rosamarie Umbrello played great in goal for the Vets.

Boys Under 11
Super Sub 5 Rockwood 1
Acton Super Sub took a 5-1 win from Rockwood in Under 11 boys' soccer at the Rockmosa field on Thursday, August 23 with Mark Wells booting a hat trick. Cole Fricker and Alex Wenzel bagged singles with Alex also figuring in three of Wells' goals. Mark Wells registered two other assists.

Super Sub 5
Royal City Realty 2
Mark Wells scored two goals to lead Acton Super Submarine to a 5-2 victory over Acton Royal City Realty on a wet McKenzie-Smith Bennett field. Super Sub made the most out of early chances to take a 3-0 lead. Royal City shaved the lead to 3-2 on Colin Adema's two goals but
