Chamber of Commerce is reviving 'Business of Month'

The Membership Services Committee of Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce has announced the renewal of its program, "Business of the Month," which recognizes exceptional businesses in Halton Hills committed to providing quality service, unique products and/or deserve recognition for making a difference in the community through their civic involvement.

They want to hear why local residents like their favourite shop, restaurant or business. Is it the friendly staff? Their dedication to their product or services? What is it that keeps you going back?

Businesses that receive this distinction have use of the Business of the Month sign to place in their window announcing them as the recipient. As well, they will receive a framed certificate, and the added bonus of publicity in the local newspapers and/or the Chamber newsletter.

Chamber members and the general public wishing to nominate a local business as the Business of the Month, should fill out a ballot form, or submit a short letter, stating the name of the business, the reason for the nomination, and the name and phone number of the nominator. Chamber members wishing to receive a supply of nomination cards should contact the Chamber office.

The Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, with its over 450 members, is the "Voice of Business in Halton Hills" an organization which relies on the support of its members in order to provide a large range of services for both business and the community.

The first monthly award will be presented in September.

For nomination forms or to receive more information about this program, please contact Sue Walker, 905-877-7119, or visit the Chamber office at 170 Guelph St., Georgetown, or by email at info@haltonhillschamber.on.ca.
