Minor Atoms win fist two, finalists in Lasalle tourney

by Karen McCarthy

The Acton Minor Atoms made a good start to the season, winning the first two regular season games and ending up finalists in an "A" tournament at Lasalle, near Windsor.

On Tuesday, October 2 they hosted Arthur and played a great passing game to come up with a 7-2 win. Brandyn McCarthy, Jessy Kuenzig and Tyler Hillhouse each had a couple of goals. Assists were had by Jessy Kuenzig (2), Riley McGilloway (2), Brandyn McCarthy (2), Bradley Kri (2), Brandon Bennett (2) and Taylor McNabb.

The Acton club again played a strong game in Elora on Thursday, October 4th, winning 6-2. Brandyn McCarthy, Taylor McNabb and Colton Burgan each had assists.

This past weekend the Minor Atoms played in the Lasalle Sabres tournament. In their first game against the home team, Lasalle, the Minor Atoms played a great game but had to settle for a 4-1 loss. Brandyn McCarthy scored, assisted by Riley McGilloway.

They played Essex in their second game, and downed them 2-0. Brandyn McCarthy and Bradley Kri each scored with assists by Riley McGilloway, Jessy Kuenzig, Taylor McNabb and Brandyn McCarthy.

In their third game they played against Brampton. It was a very close game until the third period when Acton took control and skated to a 7-3 win. This win put them through to the championship game on Monday. Jessy Keunzig scored four goals, Brandyn McCarthy scored twice and Brandon Bennett had a single. Tyler Hillhouse, Riley McGilloway (2), Jessy Keunzig (2), Taylor McNabb and Bradley Kri all had assists.

The Minors played their hearts out in the championship game but Lasalle proved to be just that much stronger and the game ended in a 10-2 loss. Bradley Kri and Dylan Creasey scored with assists going to Jessy Keunzig, Riley McGilloway and Taylor McNabb.

Minor Novices lose two games against Raiders, and Guelph

The Acton Carquest Minor Novice Tanners struggled against larger opponents this week, losing both games.

On Tuesday Oct. 2, Acton travelled to Georgetown to take on the Raiders, who won 6-2. Nicholas Eagan scored the first goal, with an assist going to Jake Lewis. Roger Kirkness returned to the lineup and scored a goal, assisted by Brandon Lockyer, who leads the team with three assists.

After the game, coach Bruce Chiasson named defenceman James Begg as an additional assistant captain.
