Minor Atoms win two
by KAREN McCARTHY

Acton Minor Atoms hosted Georgetown on Tuesday, November 6 and it proved to be a very exciting game, which Acton won 3-2, the first of two wins the past week.

Georgetown scored the first goal of the game and Acton soon tied it up with a goal by Brandyn McCarthy from Riley McGilloway. There was no scoring in the second period. Acton dominated the play, but couldn't come up with a goal.

In the third period, Acton continued to dominate the play and soon went ahead with two goals by McGilloway, with assists by Tyler Hillhouse and Jesse Keunzig. Georgetown managed to score once more, but Acton held on to win 3-2.

The team travelled to Ancaster on Friday, November 9, and things just weren't going their way. Ancaster played a very strong game and were up 2-0 after the first two periods. Keunzig came up with an unassisted goal in the third period and Acton had to settle for a 2-1 loss.

The Acton club was in Fergus on Sunday, November 11 and thumped Fergus 11-2, in an extremely rough game.

The first period ended tied at one with a goal by McCarthy from Bradley Kri and Colton Burgan.

In the second period Acton surged ahead with goals by Keunzig, Hillhouse and McGilloway. Assists were had by Burgan, Keunzig, McCarthy and Taylor McNabb.

Acton took total control in the third period and didn't let up. Hillhouse scored three more goals, McGilloway scored twice and singles were had by Burgan and Bradley Kri. Helpers by McGilloway (3), Burgan, McCarthy, McNabb, Keunzig, Scott Hofland and Dylan Creasey.
