Drunk driver charged

A 54-year-old Tidey Avenue man was charged with impaired driving after trying to avoid a police RIDE spot check at Mill and Frederick Streets at 10:34 on Monday night.

The man, driving a 2001 Chevrolet, turned to avoid the spot check but police followed him and arrested him for impaired driving. He failed a breathalyzer test at the police station and appears in court January 24.

Public drunk

A 26-year-old Brampton man was charged with public intoxication after being found staggering on the road in the Highway 7 - Fourth Line area at 11:09 on Monday night.

Police arrested the man for his own safety and transported him to an Oakville jail, where he spent the night.

Slim Santa stolen

A Sixth Line Nassagaweya man told police someone stole a tall, thin Santa ornament from his front lawn last Thursday, sometime between 8 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. The missing Santa is valued at $50.

Trooper burns

A fire in the engine compartment caused $3,500 damage to a 1990 Isuzu Trooper at the corner of Main Street and Agnes Street just after noon last Monday.

Acton firefighters quickly extinguished the blaze. The Campbellville man had bought the vehicle the week before.

False alarm

A false alarm, an automatic fire alarm of unknown origins called Acton firefighters to Holly Industries on Eastern Avenue at 3:19 a.m. last Wednesday.

On Saturday at 3:18 a.m. Acton firefighters were called again to Holly Industries, for another false alarm. No cause for the alarm was determined and fire department staff is working with plant maintenance personnel to solve the problem.

Chest pains

At 9:20 p.m. on Friday, Acton firefighters responded to a medical assist call in North Milton. They found a 72 year-old resident of 25 Side Road was experiencing chest pains. Acton firefighters took care of the man until an ambulance arrived to take him to hospital.

Unveil Seniors' lifestyle community

Acton area seniors got their first look at the reworked plans for Parkside Meadows, an adult lifestyle development in Acton, at a meeting at the Acton Seniors' Centre on Monday.

The developer, Fred Dawkins, invited the seniors to talk with the builders, Finoro Homes, about plans for the "adult lifestyle" development of townhouses and singles, adjacent to the West Meadows development off Wallace Street between Commerce Crescent and McDonald Boulevard.

The development, which initially included a low-rise apartment building, now consists of 41 townhouses and 34 single-family bungalow homes. The townhouse lots are 26-foot wide and the bungalows are on 35-foot lots that are approximately 115-foot deep.

Approximately 30 seniors attended the meeting to learn
