

PeeWee Selects cop tourney consolation

Acton PeeWee Selects won the consolation championship at the Grand Valley AE Rep Tournament in Grand Valley on March 11.

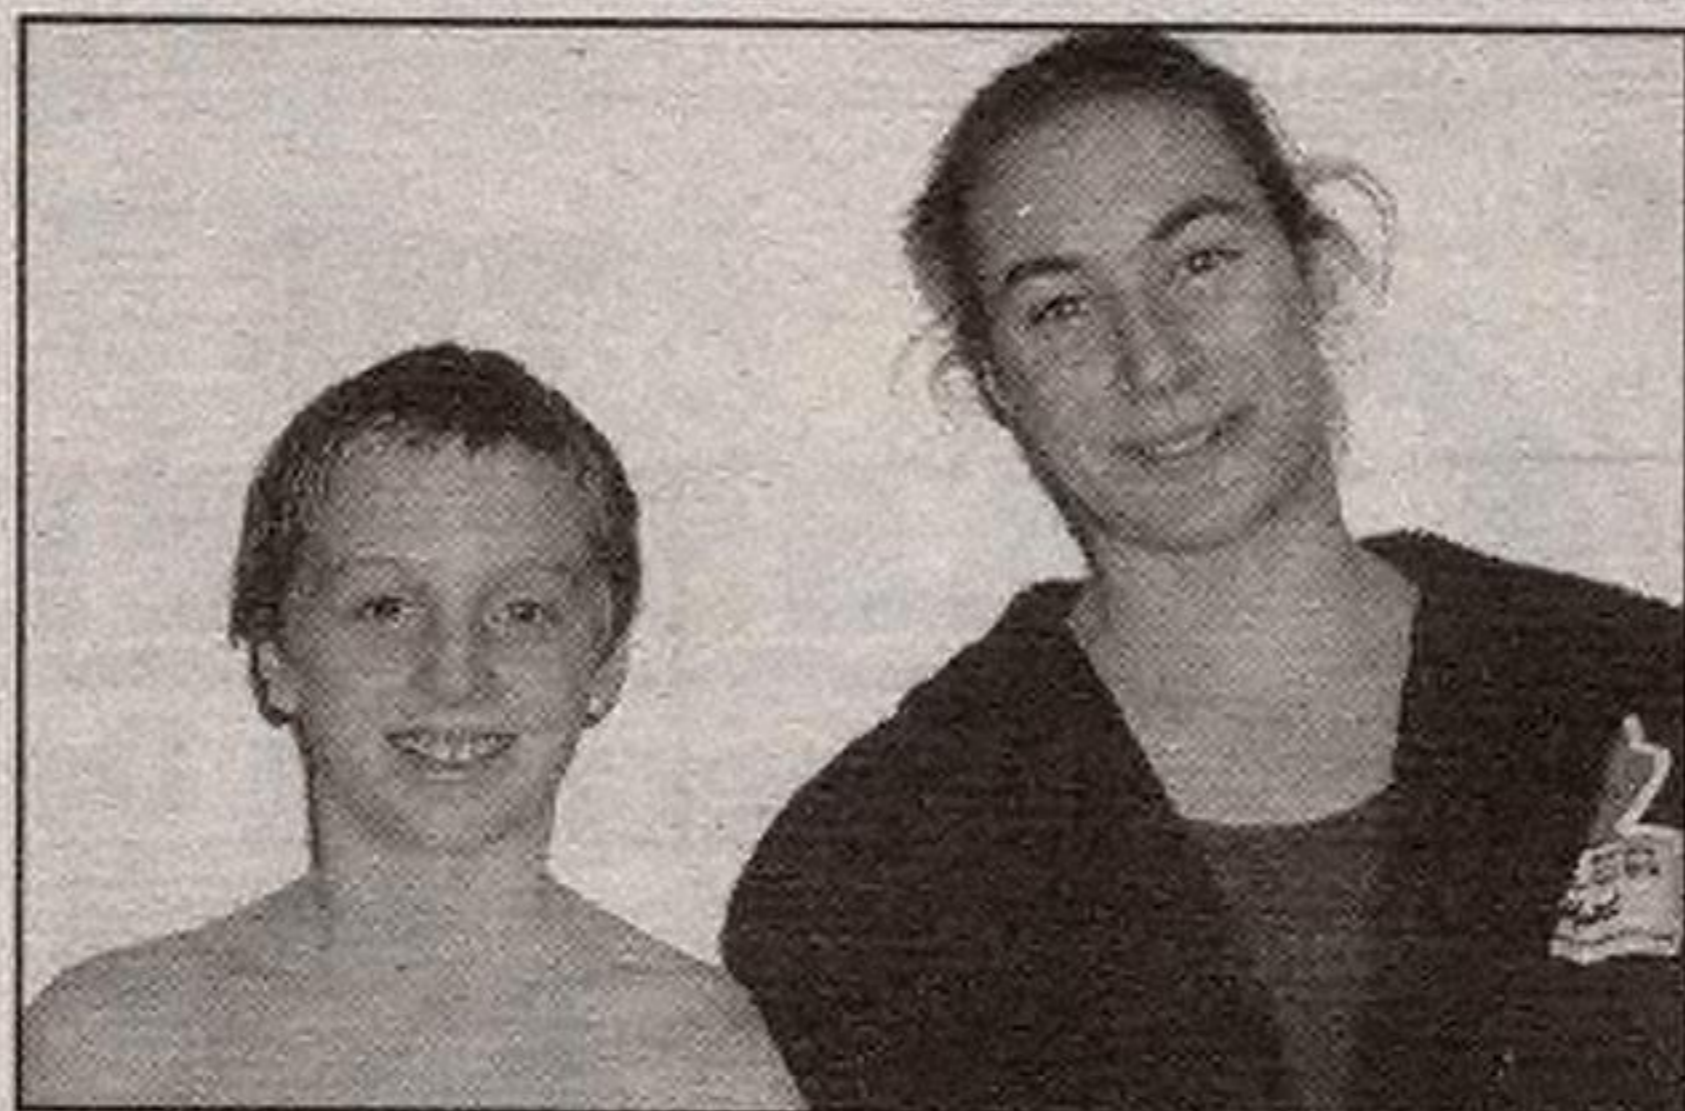

Host Grand Valley was the only team to beat the Acton Select, taking a 3-1 win in the tourney's first game. Acton got off to a slow start but took the game to Grand Valley in the third period. David Gardener scored the lone goal assisted by Jason Douthright.

Acton took a 4-2 win over Bolton in the second game with David Gardener, Jordan LaRose, Dylan McPhail and David Garvie. Craig Kirkwood, Patrick Eagan, McPhail, and Douthright collected assists.

The consolation championship game between the Acton Selects and Mt. Forest went into overtime before Dylan McPhail scored from Jason Douthright to claim the game and the consolation crown with a 3-2 win. Spencer Veness played a strong game in goal for the Selects whose other two markers were scored by Brian Many from Mike Kellas and Jordan La Rose from Craig Kirkwood and Sebastian Mena.

Other team members included Corey Tennier, Jim Blair, Daniel Elgar, Alex Hunak, John Traversa and Todd Ferriera.

Selects win, tie in exhibition games

Acton PeeWee Selects won and tied two recent exhibition hockey games against teams in Hamilton and Brampton.

The Selects shaded a Hamilton team 2-1 with Mike Kellas and Craig Kirkwood supplying the scoring punch and Jim Blair, Jason Douthright, Brian Many and Todd Ferriera collecting assists.

Kellas opened the scoring in the second period but Hamilton tied it midway through the third period. Craig Kirkwood bagged the winner late in the period.

Alex Hunak and Brian Many got the goals in the 2-2 tie in Brampton with Dylan McPhail and Jason Douthright assisting.

Acton scored on the ensuing rush to tie the game at one and never looked back. In the third period they scored on three successive shifts, including goals by linemates Dube and Tysoe, to put the game out of reach.

Thursday Acton defeated Coronation 2-1, falling behind 1-0 midway through the third before Bronizewski, with an amazing reach and timing, intercepted a cross-ice pass to go in alone and score late in the period. A short time later McArthur, who has a bagful of crucial assists this season, fought his way to the goalmouth with a good lead pass, where Bronizewski got the puck to the slot and the late-coming Greg Boughton, who coolly and smoothly snapped home a 20 foot wrist shot for the win.

Devils spoil championship bid

The slick youngster looked stunned by his own success as his teammates greeted him behind the goal. But in the period's fifth minute he was back again, cutting off the left side while 3-on-2, looking off everyone, and ripping a low drive stick side to up the ante to 7-2.

Two late Acton goals salvaged some pride for the Tanners. Troy Ethier worked both ends of a rink-long dash, completing a pretty give-and-go with Collins to score; Greg Boughton completed the game sheet with three minutes left. Acton generated several glittering scoring opportunities during the third period, but it was not their day as they came up short in their third consecutive tournament final this season. Al Dube's determined effort earned him a well-deserved player-of-the-game award for Acton.

In Saturday morning's semi-final, Hamilton-Coronation opened the scoring but fell apart on the ice and the bench after two consecutive goals by Ethier; on the second, he came out of the penalty box to take a fabulous lead pass from Kurtis McArthur, walk in alone and rip in a high shot. Just previously, Acton was lucky to not receive another penalty, and Jordan Guindon, down and out, stretch out his glove and take away a tap-in goal from Hamilton.

Friday night, Mastart was invisible in the game after a crunching hit by Jon Tysoe on an attempted wraparound.
