Phone Fraud

Fraud is the Number 1 crime against seniors

Acton's seniors tell me they regularly receive telephone calls from people wanting to give, sell or send them something.

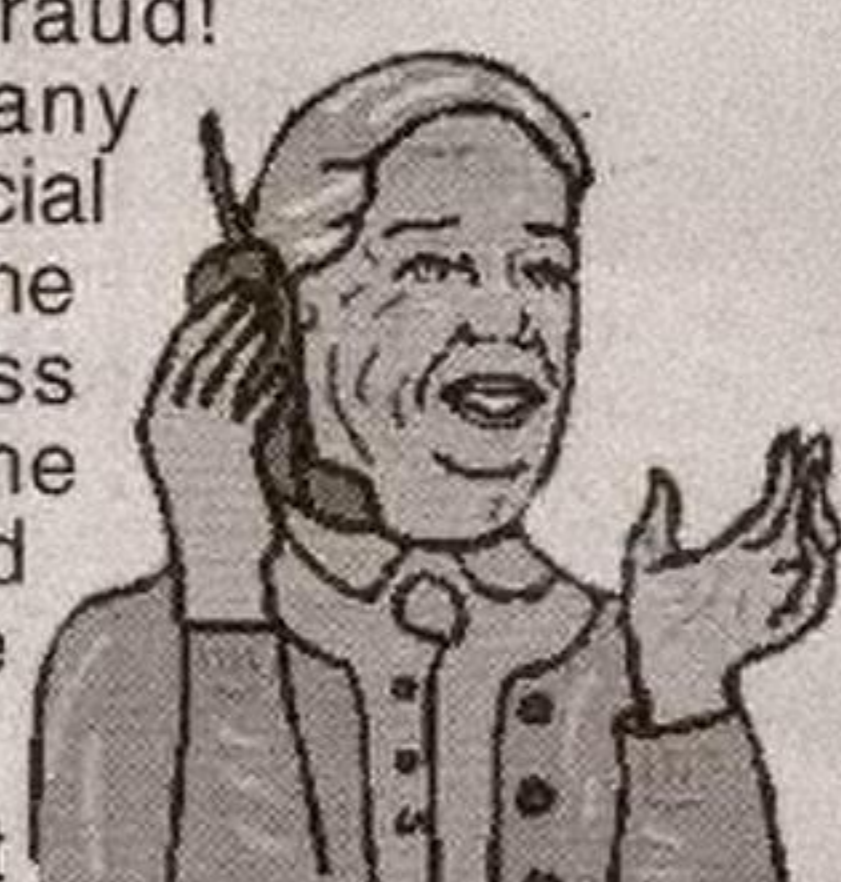

Acton's seniors want everyone to be aware of, and not fall victim to, phone fraud.

Someone calls you and says:

- 1) You have won a fabulous free prize or cash, but to claim it you must pay taxes, customs or delivery fees; or
- 2) Could you help needy children through our charity? We will send someone right over to pick up a cheque; or
- 3) You can help catch a criminal at your bank by withdrawing cash and giving it to an inspector.

The caller may be a scam artist.

It's never rude to say "No thanks" and hang up on a fraud! Never give any personal or financial information over the phone unless you've placed the call yourself and know the company.

If in doubt about phone fraud, or if you need more information, call the Government of Ontario - Consumer Services Bureau at 1-800-889-9768 or Phonebusters at 1-888-495-8501 or stop by the Acton Village Constable's office.
