Pitching for Acton were Ryan Mertens, Steven Borg and Dylan Burgess.

Coach John Burgess says he really likes the way the Acton team is developing.

Minor Ball Report

Acton Tim Horton's Blast Ball

Tim Horton's Green team played Tim Horton's Red team on June 24. For Tim Horton's Red, Jacob Drysdale did a great job at 1st base while Neil McNabb was a big "hit" at bat.

For Tim Horton's Green, MacKenzie Carroll made the pitching position look easy and Matthew Hansen came up with a couple of big hits.

Tim Horton's Blue played Tim Horton's Gold. Matthew Norton of Tim Horton's Blue had 3 solid hits, while Victoria Macinnis' overall play was great.

Allison Foot of Tim Horton's Gold was terrific in the field and Keiran Mullin was like a cat rounding the bases.

Grasshopper
A&S Engraving played

Acton Market Garden IGA. For A&S Engraving, Justin Pankratz had a great play, a hit to second that was good for 3 RBIs. Logan McNabb played great all-round, with batting and on the field. Eric Putnins had some great swinging action with terrific long balls. It was a fantastic job from all on the team, on and off the field.

For Acton IGA, Jessica Litt and James Semple both had good hits. Hayley Hancock was excellent behind the plate as catcher and Ian Thompson played great on base. Good game everyone!

Denny's Insurance Acton Eagles played a great game against Carlyle this week. Every player contributed in their own way but special mention is for Robert Bohlken's first time batting runs in and getting himself home. Also playing a good game were Nick Molanaro and Calvin Bailey who both helped get in many runs. A sad farewell to Savanna Muir, who has moved up to rookie. Good luck Savanna. Keep up the good work for the rest of the team.

Rookie

Nellis Construction won again on the 20th, beating Brookville B 14-13 to run their record to 6-1. It was an exciting game with the lead going back and forth. Acton struggled at the plate early, but recovered with a big third inning, sparked by a Brandon Lockyer 3-run home run. Acton was losing 13-9 in the bottom of the 6th inning, but came back with five runs for the win, capped off by a game winning two-run double by Jonathon Porty. Paul Kutasienski, Josh Tremblay
