

COUNTRY COLOUR: A mix of sunny skies and lots of rides on Saturday was the right combination for entertaining fun in the midway.

ANIMAL KINGDOM: It wasn't a real dinosaur but the children loved riding the creature midway ride.

FAIR DAYS
 photos by Angela & Ted Tyler

JUDGEMENT TIME: Although the cattle were small in number, handlers and owners had the animals groomed ready for judging on Saturday.

TOO TIGHT: 10 year old Adam Andrews kept a close eye on Brent Jacobs and his snake Kah, making sure it didn't get wrapped to tightly around his neck.

COWBOY RULES: Even the judges donned western wear for the equestrian competition.

NEED A BEST MAN: Pretend groom Harley Beaver, 6, from Dorchester was looking for a best man with his wedding tux and his horse dressed as the bride.

WHERE'S THE HORSE: During the miniature horse competition, competitors had numerous costumes including Hope Collin, 5, from Dorchester who was dressed up as Little Bo Peep and her horse was her sheep.

PRIZE WINNER: Seven year old Laura Lorelio captures her stuffed animal lion prize in the midway.

DELIGHTFUL DESSERT: Amanda Walton and her friend take a break from the midway to enjoy an ice cream dessert.

GIDDY UP: The miniature horse show also included a cart competition. Here, Carrie Tranter from Newtonville cleaned up with first prize.

PAINTED FACES: Sisters, 4 year old Lilianna (left) and 10 year old Chelsea White from Toronto enjoyed of fabulous colours from the face painting-booth.